10,000 VISITORS ARE EXPECTED AT MERCHANDISE SHOWER

SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE WALLACE IS DEAD

GEO. BUTTE GIVEN LARGE HEARING IN MEXIA SATURDAY

TUESDAY'S TRIP TO FIND MANY WOMEN WITH CROWD

Indications now are that the largest crowd of visitors that has ever been in Mexia, except on Circus days will be here Saturday, Nov. Eighth.

Great interest is being manifested on all sides and almost every merchant has signified intention of sending a car in the trade trip Tuesday. This occasion has really taken on the aspect of a picnic excursion as many ladies are going just for the fun of making the trip. Mr. C. A. Puckett has consented to let six young ladies off from school duties on that day and a like number of boys. These will be furnished a fine new Studebaker car for the trip by the Mexia Motor Car Co.

Great praise is due the Union Carpenters of Mexia who have expressed a willingness to Mr. McElroy to build the pyramid display stand at intersection of Sherman and Commerce Streets without cost to the merchants.

The lumber has been secured also without cost from the Neece Lumber Co. It is urged that everybody, whether a contributor or not go to Higdon-McElroy's and secure a banner for their car and join in the trade trip Tuesday.

Several out of town members were present from Wortham and Teague.

Cromwell Dance Hall Is Still Under Fire

(By United Press) KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 25.—A business man and a justice of the peace from Cromwell, Ok., testified before the United States Commissioner here yesterday that the dance hall conducted by Mrs. Mattie Jonas, arrested on a charge of attempt to violate the Mann act had been run in an orderly fashion. Rex Eversole, Bonham, Texas, arrested with Mrs. Jonas was released when the woman testified she had nothing to do with the management of the hall.

Vivian Wilcox, Tulsa, Ok., testified for the Government that she had worked in the dance hall two nights and had danced with men that were intoxicated. She also said she had a quarrel with Mrs. Jonas and the latter used vile language in discharging her. This testimony was refuted by A. H. Husbands, Cromwell man, who said he was present at the time and heard Mrs. Jonas make no vile remarks.

The hearing will be resumed on Monday.

Jack Walton Said To Be Tax Dodger

(By United Press)

OKLAHOMA CITY, Ok., Oct. 25.—Former Governor Jack Walton was the center of much discussion in political headquarters today after it was revealed yesterday from the income tax lists that he had not filed an income tax return since 1921. "Sworn testimony of R. O. Brown, manager of a building and loan association here at Walton's impeachment trial showed that Walton deposited $33,450 in the Association during 1922," R. H. Wilson, head of the Anti-Walton Democratic headquarters said today.

OPEN HEARINGS ABANDONED TO PROBE SIDE ANGLES

(By FRAZIER EDWARDS)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Senate campaign fund probes today abandoned open-hearings for the time being to give their individual scrutiny to startling circumstantial evidence, "laid before them yesterday by Samuel Untemyer, counsel for Senator La Follette. The evidence, if substantiated, will have a profound effect upon the republican campaign," Untemyer said, but thus far it is without corroboration, he added.

No inkling of the character of the evidence was permitted to leak out. Chairman Borah, when asked if he could disclose its general character repeated his court announcement that the "question is still being considered by the committee."

"It is a great story, if it is true," was all that Senator Caraway would say. In all probability the evidence will remain bottled up until the committee meets again Monday afternoon. The two witnesses from Chicago, who Untemyer said had the information bearing on republican campaign funds, were understood to be still in Washington but their identity was not revealed.

HOUSTON BOUND CANDIDATE IS CORDIALLY RECEIVED

"There's no bootlegger for me for Governor," was the parting shot taken by Dr. George Butte, in a short speech he made to between 400 and 500 voters of this community from a passenger coach on Houston bound train which passed through here at noon Saturday.

This address was only for about ten minutes, during which time he hastily summed up the political situation in Texas today, denounced Fergusonism as a menace to the political well being of the State and concluded with words of praise for the preachers, teachers, and other apostles of honesty in government who are backing his campaign for Governor of Texas.

The fact that Dr. Butte was scheduled to make a short talk here was not known in Mexia until Friday night. The letter carrying the announcement was misrouted to points south of here and did not return until on the late afternoon train, too late for press notice.

The large crowd that assembled so hurriedly, chiefly gotten together by the use of the telephone Saturday morning, was a distinct surprise. Many veteran Democrats of the county, scores of women, most of the pastors of the city and local Republicans formed the crowd.

Dr. Butte said that similar responses were being given all through Texas and that from the Panhandle to the Coast there is going on today a political revolution which is certain to wrest the State from the menace of Fergusonism at the General Election in November.

He was introduced by Hon J. H. Byers, an attorney of this city who served as instructor under him at the Law School of the University of Texas when he first identified himself with that institution. "I was under him two years as a student," Mr. Byers said "and I know two years under him will prove worth while to Texas."

Dr. Butte said that it was a pleasure to him to speak in Limestone county, in the midst of monuments lifted by labor, and here see the fruits resulting from the development of the resources of Texas. He referred to his work with the oil and gas division of the Railroad Commission in this connection and then asserted that if he was elected Governor of Texas, he now pledged his earnest endeavor in bringing about conditions in government out of which agriculture, industry and economy might work for the fullest development of the matchless resources of the great commonwealth.

"An emergency has arisen in the political history of the State of Texas, a crisis which calls to every liberty loving citizen who believes in Clean Politics and Honesty in public office to lay aside every selfish consideration and exercise his or her right to vote in accordance with the dictates of right conscience regardless of previous or present political affiliations."

"From the Panhandle to the Gulf I find that the people are aroused to the fact that our highest court has been assailed. Political intrigue has thwarted the will of the people. A great body of our citizens are earnestly seeking to right these wrongs and administer a deserved rebuke to those responsible for this invasion of the rights of the people. The issue in this campaign is whether or not Fergusonism shall be reestablished politically in this State. Our people are alarmed and are not willing to entrust an office to a man who would and could not be held accountable for his deeds done in office."

Several times during the address, speaker was greeted by general applause. Each time he smiled broadly at the reception and waved a good bye as the train pulled away from the station.

Knew The Nature Of The Negro

(By United Press) DALLAS, Oct. 25.—City detectives had little trouble in solving the robbery of an undertaking establishment here recently.

Investigating the robbery the detectives asked the proprietor what clues he had.

"It was an inside job," the man said.

"How do you know," the man hunters asked.

"Because an 'outside' negro won't come in here where the other negroes are employed."

The detectives "interviewed" a negro youth employed at the establishment and recovered the money.

Residence Fire On South Belknap Street Early Friday Night

A two story frame rooming house owned by H. T. Capell and occupied by Mrs. Ruby Brownlee was almost totally destroyed at 6:50 o'clock Friday night. The building is located in the King block on South Belknap street and is reported about 50 per cent damaged. Practically all of the upper story being burned, about $200.00 loss was reported by Mrs. Brownlee in furniture and private property.

The fire looked as if the whole King block would be wiped out at the start, but the local fire department did excellent work despite the fact that they only had city pressure to fight the blaze with. Cox Brothers, owners of the King Grocery store, near the scene of the fire made a donation of $5.00 to each member of the fire force in appreciation of their splendid work in preventing the fire from reaching adjoining property.

The fire is reported to have started from an oil stove in the home of Mrs. Brownlee. No insurance was carried on building or furniture.

ROW NOW BREW- ING ON INCOME TAX PUB.

(By United Press)
SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 25.—Declaring the Treasury Department's attitude toward publication of income tax lists conflicts with the intention of Congress, Senator Robert M. La Follette today telegraphed
Senator Coughlin of Michigan, chairman of the special treasury department investigating committee, urging him to summon secretary of the Treasury Mellon and Commissioner of Internal Revenue Blum and "ask them by what authority they seek
to subvert the will of the people."
La Follette's telegram
"Newspapers carry reports that
Commissioner of Internal Revenue
Blum has issued a warning threatening to sue newspapers with the information if they publish lists of tax payers and income taxes paid by them which have been ordered to be kept under mandatory provisions of revenue law."
"I believe that the act violates the spirit of the constitution and should not be law and should be repealed by Congress, that the public should know who is paying taxes and how much they pay. The purpose of all amendment was to provide a means of checking up on the dollar by exposing the facts of public economy. The purpose will be defeated if public action is prevented."
Secretary Mellon is quoted as saying Congress did not intend to publish newspaper publication to satisfy curiosity. Mellon may resist as he seeks immunity for the public to desire to know who is paying taxes and who is dodging them.
But Coughlin did not so regard it
when they passed this amendment
at the end of the fight extending over more than ten years.
"This is another example of the arrogance of Mellon in getting himself up as a judge of Congress, similar in purpose to his action in attempting to block investigation of the State of his own employment."
La Follette is to call Mellon and Blum immediately before your committee and ask them to "show why they seek to subvert the will of Congress."
Dallas, Tex.—Sec. Blum is called to meet Woodhull and with city attorney at 1:30 p.m.

MEXIA HI BLACK CATS EASY VICTORS OVER THE HUBBARD CITY JACKRABBITS

The Mexia Hi Black Cats romped away to an easy 61 to 0 victory over the Hubbard City Jackrabbits Friday afternoon on the local gridiron. At no time during the game was the Black Cats goal in danger as the visitors were unable to make any headway through the Cat line and the local boys had them far outclassed in the overhead route, although they managed to complete several passes but no spectacular runs were made from this process.

On the visitors team all eyes were on the tall blond headed center, end and what not, who seemed to be everywhere at once. This spectacular player was Weatherby, the Captain of the Hubbard Jackrabbits who never gave up spirit although fighting almost a lone game against the machine like team of Coach Polert. Weatherby was generally heralded as deserving more credit than any man on the field for his spirit and football ability, the spirit of the two teams was very noticeable to the spectators. It can be remembered when there was more rivalry between these two schools than any other in this district, and consequently some hard feeling, but Friday's game was a real treat to the lover of real fair sports.

The local boys never played better football in their lives than they did Friday afternoon, the most spectacular were Parkinson, Clover, and Karner who was always there with the goods when it came time to kick goal. While Buford was at his best fighting spirit and made many substantial gains, and was called on to kick goal after touchdown several times. Auds also played an excellent game as did practically every player Coach Polert sent to the field.

Referee: Arrington; Umpire: Moody; Head linesman: Evans.
HOW THE SCORES WERE MADE

First Quarter
Hubbard City won the toss and decided to defend the south goal. Mexia kicked off to Hubbard who lost the ball before making a play. The Cats made a line plunge, a successful pass for 15 yards and then Parkinson plunged over left tackle for 8 yards and a touchdown. The first score coming after one minute fifty seconds of play. Karner kicked goal. Score end of first quarter Mexia 7, Hubbard 0.

Second Quarter
Auds made a spectacular 35 yard run for touchdown and Karner kicked goal again. Buford made a touchdown through the line in the last few minutes of the first half and also kicked goal making the score at the end of the first half. Mexia, 21; Hubbard 0.

Third Quarter
Thompson made a nice run for the goal for the third time this touchdown and Karner made good game putting the score 28 to 0. Hoedel recovered a Mexia fumble behind the goal line for the next goal and Karner kicked goal. The score at the end of the third quarter, Mexia 35; Hubbard 0.

Fourth Quarter
Perkinson made a beautiful ten failed to make the goal good. Perkinson run for touchdown and Buford made a 40 yard run for a touchdown on a returned punt. Karner failed to make the goal good but it was counted by the referee as a penalty goal which made Mexia 48, the visitors 0. Auds caught a nice pass and made 30 yards for the next touchdown, Karner failed to make goal. The last touchdown of the game came when plucky little Buford made a right end run for 25 yards, Hoedel kicked goal making the final score. Mexia 61, Hubbard City 0.

T. A. GOSSIP

By HECK

With a meeting of the Texas Association coming up in the near future I have been getting what dope there is together about what the moguls intend to do about the rookie rule and just what will be the final "status" of the Waco franchise—not so much the franchise but the correct status of Harry Dupuy the Waco club owner. Dupuy has sent a letter the various club owners informing them that he has asked president Johnston to call a special meeting of the league as he (Dupuy) is withdrawing the Waco franchise from the T-A circuit, but to date I have not had any news of president Johnston calling the meeting. Just what Dupuy has on his mind I know is hard for you fans to understand but from where I sit, sat or set it is an open and shut affair since it is no trouble to figure what is on Harry's mind after you once know him—and all the club owners know him from the ground up. My hunch is that Dupuy figures that he can escape paying his indebtedness to the League if he withdraws the Waco franchise from a league whenever the notion strikes him but instead can only do so with the consent of the club owners comprising the league. Personally, I think Dupuy is bluffing and knows that he can't get away with the stuff, he is now trying to pull but at the same time I think it is high time for the club owners to get busy and get Dupuy out of the League. This can be done by the club owners voting Dupuy out—NOT the Waco franchise and if this course is taken it is then up to Dupuy to appeal to the National Association and then Judge Landis and in either case I fully believe that the action of the other club owners will be upheld. The matter of electing a president must also come up at an early date and I am in hopes that the club owners select a man who lives in the league and one who is capable of handling its affairs in a prompt and vigorous manner. I have no kick against A. B. Johnston for I believe he did his very best and there is no doubt but what he handled two very trying situations during the past season in a splendid manner and for which he is due the thanks of the league. The idea of J. Doak Roberts of Dallas as president of the T-A loop is to be passed over with regrets to Doak as he is not the man even though he is the strongest and best posted baseball man in the south but the T-A loop needs a man who has the league's affairs at heart and who can be close enough to be in touch with everything and everybody. In this connection I do not think that a better man than J. G. McIntosh of Mexia could be found and I know that if the club owners knew him as I do they would not hesitate a single second in placing the genial Mac in the president's chair. McIntosh knows baseball from the ground up. Knows it from organizing to the final game of the season, and all the little inroads and perplexing problems that come up during a seasons play. McIntosh knows baseball law backwards and in my opinion is the best student of the game in the league, and many other leagues and this one fact alone makes him the logical man for the place. I know at least two club owners that are favorable to McIntosh as president and it would be a great thing for the league if these two would use their influence toward his election as I have no doubt but what their influence would just about settle the matter. President McLendon of the Gushers is back home and with oodles of dope, opinions and explanations of the world's series and naturally is vociferous in his praise of Fred Marberry former

Mrs. Fleischmann Weds Jay O'Brien.

As was forecast when she secured her Paris divorce from Julius Fleischmann, Cincinnati, O., and New York "great king," Mrs. Julius Fleischmann has been married in Paris to Jay O'Brien, young American polo player. Before she married Fleischmann, Mrs. O'Brien was the wife of Louis Hemtaway, silk manufacturer.

Gusher pitcher who knocked off a large chunk of praise and about eight thousand iron men for his work in the series—and Fred deserves it all.

"For Mexia, I Will"

WHEN REASON REIGNS

The most difficult thing to do is to think. If anyone should doubt it, let him try it some time.

To rise above prejudice, and passion and personal interest and think a subject through to an inevitable, logical conclusion, starting from an axiom and keeping in mind only demonstrable facts and proved principles, ah, this is a feat.

Our fears, our hopes, our avarice, our ingrained prejudices, our hatreds, determine our opinions and convictions more often than our reason. He is a big man who can separate himself wholly from the narrowness of personal aversions and dislikes and the pettiness of selfish interest and give a clear, unbiased judgment upon an issue in which he is more or less personally concerned.

One of the sure signs that a person is thinking in the terms of prejudice and passion rather than of rational thought is his quick descent in an argument to the use of epithets and the imputing of motives.

It is much easier to transfix your opponent with an opprobrious adjective than to disprove his argument, much simpler to overwhelm him with billingsgates than to contradict his facts, easier to impute base motives than to prove his logic fallacious.

So fundamentalists call the liberal "anti-Christ" and modernists retort "old fogey." Republican calls the Democrat "radical" and the Progressive "red" and they return the compliment by sneering allusions to Wall Street. Our friends of the religious press are sometimes eloquent in the language of vituperation, and while in one column there may be a tearful plea for tolerance and gentle sympathy in the treatment of all questions, throughout the other pages the vocabulary of abuse is exhausted, and the epithets bigot, fanatic and liar are the simplest and the kindest.

But while there may be temporary applause for the vehement editor who lays about him with the most uproarious verbal lashings, because the populace always loves a fight, in the long run prejudice, passion and hatred must yield to facts and reason.

I never knew a night so black light failed to follow in its track. I never knew wa storm so gray it failed to have its clearing day. I never knew such bleak despair that there was not a rift somewhere. I never knew an hour so drear love could not fill it full of cheer.—John Kendrick Bangs.

"Wait for the wagon and we'll all take a ride with Ma and Jim," writes a Milam county Jimmie. Well, he'd better not wait for those penitentiary wagons that were shipped to Louisiana and reforwarded to Jim's farm. Those wagons are a total Texas loss.—Geo. Bailey in Houston Post-Dispatch.

The Inquisitive Idiot wants to know if a colored cemetery should be referred to as a "blackberry patch?"—Sam Miller in Mineral Wells Index.

THE EDITORIAL OF THE DAY

WELCOME THE DOCTORS.

(Mineral Wells Index).
And we have with us today the doctors. Let us welcome them with a hospitality worthy of their calling. There are only two professions that are paramount that of practicing medicine. One is the minister, the other, the doctor. The doctor saves the body, the minister saves the souls and the editors job is to save the doctors and ministers.

There are a number of things that doctors and editors have in common and any number of things in which there is a great dissimilarity. They are alike in that neither get all the money they earn; the doctor gets cussed for things that nature does and the editor gets abused for saying things other people think and haven't the nerve to say.

Doctors have a great advantage over editors in lots of ways. They can use big words and get by with them but when an editor tries to use them he has to spell them. A doctor can write in such a way that no one but a druggist can read it; an editor writes in such a way that everybody can read it but they won't. If a doctor calls on a man's wife he sends the bill to the husband and he pays it; if an editor calls on a man's wife he gets shot. A doctor is the only person on earth who can make us sick at our stomach and then make us pay him for it. But we need him all the way from the cradle to the grave.

He ushers in the population of the earth and when a baby is born he's present and gets twenty-five dollars for his services. If the editor fails to give the early arrival a favorable notice he loses a subscription. But doctors, like editors, accumulate a lot of abuse when their patients blame them for their own abuse of nature. The doctors have kept experimenting until today people live several years longer than they did a few years ago, but so far no one has given a reason why they should.

We poke fun at the medical profession when we're well but when we get sick we send in a hurry call for the best one we know. Some doctors are a detriment to the community in which they live, due to the fact that they, through their skill, keep alive a lot of people that seriously obstruct the progressive view of the community.

Seriously, let every citizen of Mineral Wells make it a point to lend his aid to making this visit of the doctors of the Northwest Texas Medical Association, the most pleasant one of its history.

FRED WARING

Fred Waring and His College Orchestra Have Popularized 500 Ditties

A record in song popularization is claimed by Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians. Mr. Waring estimated recently that at least five hundred hits have received their first impetus toward popularity from being played by his orchestra.

The Pennsylvanians are all for mer students of the University of Pennsylvania. They began to play together on campus in their freshman year. A college choir was the first song they started or the road to fame and "Blackie Blues" is the latest.

"Blackie Blues" is of course a far better song than the other," says Mr. Waring. "But one was almost as easy to popularize as the other. That is because popular song lovers are like sheep. They follow the leader. A song makes a hit with somebody and is played a few times. People begin to think it is the fashion."

"This is particularly true of college campuses. One college campus takes up a song and every school in the country follows suit. This really means that everybody who will join in too, for the college set most of the popular song mode."

It is easy to see why. The students come from everywhere and when they go back to their homes on vacations and holidays, they carry with them songs they have sung on the campus.

HUGE SUM ASKED FOR G. O. P. CAMPAIGN

(Special Correspondence)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 23.—The Republican national committee's announcement that contributions to the Coolidge-Dawes campaign fund have been limited to $25,000 from any individual or corporation doesn't mean anything, says Chairman Clum L. Shaver, of the Democrats National Committee, for the reason that the Republican financiers know how to manipulate subscriptions, just as was done four years ago, and as has been done this year in President Coolidge's home state, Massachusetts, where the law is being open flouted.

Four years ago, after the sensational disclosures of efforts of Managers of Governor Lowden and Major General Leonard Wood to purchase the Republican nomination, Chairman Will Hays, of the Republican National Committee, announced that subscriptions had been limited to $1,000. Yet an investigation by the Senate committee headed by Senator Kenyon, of Iowa, showed that the Republican National Committee expended more than $6,000,000 to elect Harding and Coolidge, and that more than $2,000,000 more was expended this State committee. That this was not all may be stated on as high an authority as the Kenyon committee which said, in its report, "These figures do not by any means represent the entire amount of money expended in the campaign," for many contributions and expenditures were covered up and never disclosed.

For example, during the investigation of the naval oil leases, led by Senator Walsh, of Montana, it was disclosed that after the campaign, Harry F. Sinclair, to whom Teapot Dome was leased by Secretary of the Interior Fall, underwrote $75,000 of the debt. Chairman Hays' committee ran up in the 1920 campaign, but official reports of subscriptions to the campaign fund contain no reference to such financial aid from Mr. Sinclair.

This year, a committee of big mill owners of Massachusetts which are enjoying a huge tariff bounty under the Fordney bill, has been raising an enormous fund in that state to swing the election of Mr. Coolidge. The Massachusetts law stipulates that individual subscriptions may not exceed $1,000. But in appealing for larger sums the Massachusetts Coolidge committee wrote to prospective contributors that "large contributions will be so divided as to give full num trust, the beneficiary of the observance to the requirements of the law." Even Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, admitted that such a plan was outside the law. No limitation was placed on Republican campaign subscriptions in 1922, and one of the large contributors of that year, R. B. Mellon, of Pittsburgh, brother of Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon, gave $25,000 to the National Committee in 1922 and $1,000 more to the Congressional Committee. R. D. Mellon and his brother, the Secretary of the Treasury, are the principal owners of the Aluminum Company of America, the aluminum had been allowed an amortization claim in 1923 of more than $15,000,000 by the Treasury Department, of which Andrew M. Mellon, one of the two chief owners of the Aluminum Company, is the head. Also R. D. Mellon is the man whom Senator LaFollette has publicly charged with heading a committee to raise a huge slush fund in Pennsylvania to help control the forthcoming election in favor of Coolidge and Dawes.

THIS IS A STUDEBAKER YEAR

New Type of Car Stirs Automobile World

It is an open car one moment and 30 seconds later same car is entirely enclosed. Studebaker Duplex ends need of hunting for side curtains in the dark and storm

A new type of car has stirred the automobile world as has nothing since the abandonment of the "buggy" style of body building.

It is the Studebaker Duplex, so called to indicate that it is an open car one moment, and 30 seconds later it is an enclosed car.

Like all great advances in the industrial arts, it is "so simple in operation, it is a wonder it wasn't thought of before" — — —

Particularly since its need has been growing, year by year, ever since automobiles were made.

Many people all of the time, and most people part of the time, want an open car—to bring to their riding the fresh crispness of the country air, and a free and untrammelled association with the great outdoors.

Yet for these same people, the snug comfort of the closed car, shutting out the storm and the wind and the cold, has been at times a necessity.

Two cars in one

The Studebaker Duplex is both cars in one. Just pull down the roller enclosures concealed in the roof of the car. In 30 seconds the open car has been made an enclosed car.

No hurried efforts to put up curtains; no hunting for the right one while the storm beats in; no mixing them up in the dark; no exposure through holes torn in them while trying to obtain, for the emergency, the protection given by a closed car — — —

Just pull down the roller enclosures giving instant enclosed car effect.

The body is built substantially—sides, corners and roof frame are of steel. The roof has curved steel sides and back; hardwood front. Steel, U-shaped cross beams, six of them, support the water-proofed, duplex fabric top and its linings. Here is permanent beauty, no sagging tops.

But Studebaker, on which the whole vehicle-using world has come to depend for reliability, would not rest on only one real contribution to the value given the public.

It must give all that engineering ability could devise.

Striking new features

So there are offered three distinct models of cars, to meet each of the three fields of demand—the Standard Six, with 113-inch wheelbase and 50 horsepower motor; the Special Six, with 120-inch wheelbase and 65 horsepower motor; the Big Six, most magnificent and luxurious of its products, with 127-inch wheelbase and 75 horsepower motor.

Duplex bodies are available on each line. In addition, closed models have workmanship and materials and beauty of line so far above the price class of the car, they must be seen to be appreciated.

Of scarcely less importance than the Duplex feature are other improvements such as, automatic ignition system, lighting control on the steering wheel, new location of emergency brake, improved one-piece windshield and many others.

The body lines, steering mechanism, and even the fenders of the new Studebaker were designed especially for genuine balloon tires. Thus the body lines harmonize with grace and beauty hitherto unattainable, even by Studebaker.

Come in and see these new cars.

Platform of Good Government Demo. League of Texas

Be it resolved, by a conference of Texas Democrats, assembled in Dallas, Texas, on Saturday, September 27, 1924: We heartily agree with John W. Davis, our great National Democratic Leader, that the paramount question of the hour is honesty in office and that this great question transcends all party lines and party obligations; that it is the duty of every good citizen to vote against any nominee of his party in the November election if necessary in order to effectively express his opposition to corruption in office.

We are whole-hearted supporters of Davis and Bryan, and of the New York platform, but we are utterly opposed to Fergusonism.

By Fergusonism we mean the sort of government administered by James E. Ferguson as Governor of Texas as admitted in his sworn testimony before the High Court of Impeachment in 1917, which he then justified under oath as fully meaning up to his standards of honesty and of sound and wholesome government and which he now demands shall be "undusted" by the people of Texas at the November election through his return to potent influence in the Governor's office at Austin.

We believe that the success of the Ferguson candidacy for Governor would work serious injury to the welfare of the State and its people during the next two years, would do irretrievable damage to the State's good name and would unfold moral injury to the youth of Texas and of America for all time by seemingly placing the seal of popular approval upon the Ferguson standard of official conduct.

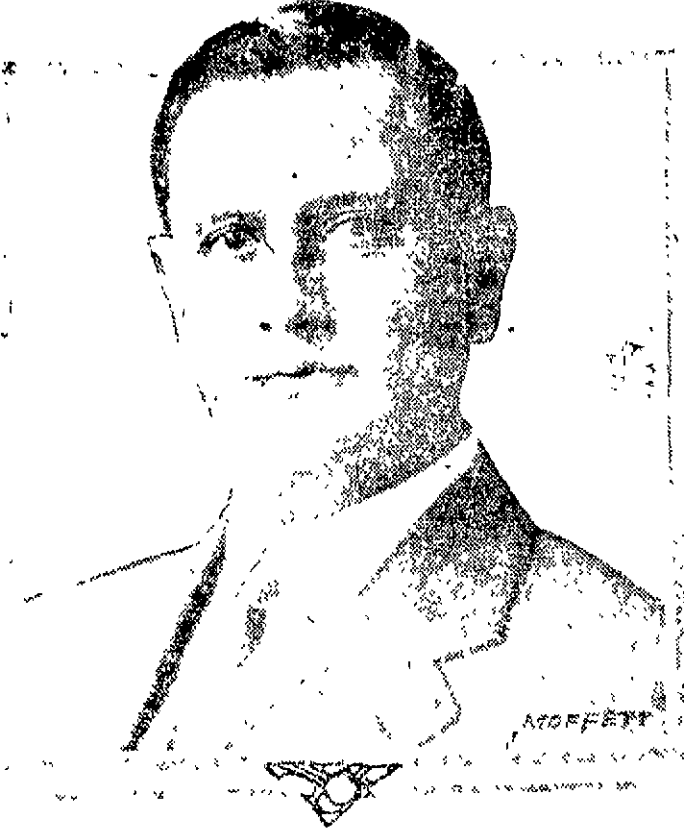

We agree with John W. Davis that no party obligation can justify a citizen in casting a vote which will injure the State and we assert that there can be no legal or moral obligation which binds any voter to cast a vote in violation of his conscience. The election statutes of Texas, which provide for the primary election pledge to support the nominees, at the same time provide explicitly how voters of any party may lawfully vote for candidates for office not on their party ticket.

We believe that the interests of Good Government demand that the Klan controversy should be wholly eliminated from the pending campaign, and we earnestly desire to support for Governor of Texas a clean, able, honest, progressive candidate whose opposition to the Ku Klux Klan cannot be doubted.

We declare that the truest and best loyalty to the Democratic party demands that Texas Democrats should vote to defeat Fergusonism at the polls in November in order that the National Democratic Platform may not be repudiated; that the party may be relieved of responsibility for two years of Fergusonian Government and that it may be demonstrated to the Nation and to the world that the Democrats of Texas have never intended to vindicate Fergusonism or return it to power.

Are you one of those who spend your earnings in another city or town? Don't you think it would be a pretty good idea to spend it with your home town people, the people who support your churches, schools, city government? Think it over!

Indiana Leader In Lower Branch Of Congress Handling Speakers For National Coolidge Campaign

Eugene V. Debs, and the Socialist Party made a great effort to win the seat Sanders won, two to one. He has been a member of the House Republican Steering Committee during his last two terms, thus helping to direct the legislative program of that body, and is a member of the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee.

No phase of a campaign is more important than that having to do with the speakers, the individuals who go out into the various states and discuss party policies in an effort to convince voters of the worth of their candidates. And the Republican National Committee, recognizing this truth, has given particular attention to this phase of its activities.

In selecting its representative Everett Sanders, of Terre Haute, Ind., as director of the Republican Speakers' Bureau, the National Committee made a splendid choice. He has proved by his activity in the House during eight years of service that he has all the qualifications essential to this work.

In his first campaign Representative Sanders contested against

HECK COMMENTS

By HECK
I journeyed over to Coolidge Thursday afternoon to see the Mexican High Black Cats Kittens tangle with the Coolidge Fish and believe me the game was well worth the trip even though it looked like the Black Kittens were due for a trimming until after the opening of the second half and then the fireworks began when Ward circled right end for a seventy yard sprint and, the first Kitten touchdown—he also kicked goal for the extra point. The other Kitten touchdowns were made on fake plays that had the Coolidge fish completely befuddled and the Kittens ran their total to twenty one when Ward booted drop kick goals after each touchdown and the game ended with the eMexia Kittens an easy winner 21-0. To say just what played the best game for the Kittens would be almost impossible as all played a great game against a team that greatly outweighed them, however the flashy work of Ward, Masterson, Travis and Potter cannot be overlooked although I would like to say something good about the whole flock of Kittens but I don't know their cognomens—what ever that is. I couldn't help but notice "pee-wee" Potter "period" Travis on account of him being so little and even though they bucked boys who were twice their size they always came out victorious. These "Fish" are a "wow" and hand you many a laugh during the game and believe me I am going to all their game hereafter. "Stay in there Black Kittens, you'll be needed on the regular team next season."

Keep on telling 'em and you will keep on selling 'em. News Advertising brings desired results.

NEW INCOME TAX LAW REVEALS SOME BIG SURPRISES

(By United Press)

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Transfer and distribution of some of America's greatest blue blood fortunes is being brought to the fore as a new class of wealthy publication of income tax returns for 1923 revealed here today.

John D. Rockefeller Sr., long regarded the richest man in the world is found to have handed down to his son the bulk of his huge fortune as told by these two income tax payments:

John D. Rockefeller Jr., $7,125,169.11.

John D. Rockefeller Sr., $121,000.17.

Young Rockefeller and the family had motor works of Henry Ford are shown by the first published income payments, to represent the two greatest incomes in the country today.

On while the holdings of the elder Rockefeller are being transferred to his son, the ones great fortunes of the Astors, Vanderbilts and Goulds are shown to have been so distributed among members of the family that no one income tax paid by any one of them would indicate the commanding fortunes once held by the heads of these old houses.

J. P. Morgan is found to pay an income tax of only $9,641 as designated by law. Since there is nothing in the law which specifically permitted "publication" of the income tax payments, some of the authorities held publication was contrary to law. The newspapers were divided on the point, the New York Times, World, News and other playing the figures, while the Herald-Tribune did not print them.

Among the nationally known figures in different cases of life, interesting elevations of success are to be drawn from the tax figures. E. H. Bary, chairman of the board of the United States Steel Corporation paid a tax of $173,000, while Charles M. Schwab, another steel magnate paid $220,000. Thomas W. Lamont of the Morgan firm, paid $417,000, several times as much as the head of the firm.

In the Theatre world, here were some of the taxes paid:

Eddie Cantor, comedian $65,000; David Belasco, noted producer $12,800 and one of his leading stars, Jeanette Larkin, of Kiki fame $19,700 and another Jeanette Kargel, who has made history with "Rain," $18,800. Marie Cowe $9,200; David Warfield $9,500; Marcus Lowe $19,800; I. Jolson $15,000; Alice Brady $18,000; Otto Skinner $12,600.

Among the prominent in politics, John W. Davis, democratic candidate for president was shown to have paid an income tax of $81,000; Charles Egan Hughes, Secretary of State $15,000; Morris Hillquit, Socialist leader $2,000; Chauncey M. Depew $13,000; Nicholas Murray Butler $6,500.

Then there is Jack Dempsey with $9,000 and his manager, Jack Kearns with $7,000.

Thomas Meigan, movie star, lived up to the reported income with a tax of $51,200, while Richard Barthelmess paid $20,000 and Lilian Gish $675.

George W. Goethals, who built the Panama Canal paid $15,000.

The greatest confusion occurred in New York when it was suddenly revealed that the tax payments had been released to public study. This confusion was enhanced when the Jacob Franks, millionaire father of little "Bobby" Franks, murdered in Chicago by Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb, has announced that he has set aside a trust fund to be used to fight any future efforts of the slayers to secure parole or pardon. Eamon de Valera, "president" of the Irish "republic," invaded Ulster to make speeches, despite the order of Premier Craig that he stay out. The conviction of William H. Anderson, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of New York, for forgery, has been upheld by the Court of Appeals. There is no further appeal and he must finish his term in Sing Sing Prison.

Dr. Geo. A. Works On Texas Text Books

FORT WORTH, Texas, Oct. 24.—Texas has gone further in centralizing control of public textbooks than have most states, according to Dr. George A. Works, director of the Texas School Survey. He believes that some changes can be made in the interest of both economy and efficiency. In a report made today he discusses the free textbook and the uniform textbook regulations.

Free Textbooks.

Free textbooks, he points out, are provided by districts in most states, whereas in Texas payment comes from the State Treasury. Even in California where the state prints its own elementary texts at state expense, payment for high school texts is left to the district. But there is no disposition on the part of Texas to make this change, he thinks, so he suggests some ways in which considerable can be saved the state.

One saving can come through a modification of the law in the matter of contracts. This is through allowing newly adopted texts to take their places gradually, replacing worn-out texts of their predecessors as they need to be destroyed. This would save wholesale destruction of books that are yet usable.

Short-time contracts might make another great saving. This would mean the making of a temporary contract to terminate after a trial of the text in actual teaching had been made, and satisfaction or dissatisfaction determined. If there was general satisfaction, a long-time contract would be made. The Textbook Commission has this privilege under present stipulations of the law.

Care of textbooks would mean

another saving, and this could be insured by taking the value of the books out of the total apportionment of the given district or county, and so notifying the people of that unit. This responsibility placed on the unit has been found to effect a saving in other states.

Uniform Texts.

Less rigid uniformity is recommended by Dr. Works in choice of textbooks for use in high schools. He suggests that the list of the particular books include several alternatives, and that choice of particular books be left to local authorities. High school inspectors from the State Department, would in that case he points out, be instructed to give equal recognition to all books on the approved list.

Separate texts should be adopted for Junior High Schools, also, as the books now prescribed for the prevailing type of sixth and seventh grades are not suitable for the junior high school, which is a new type of organization. The present arrangement, according to Dr. Works, is a serious handicap to the reconstruction of curricula of the upper elementary grades. Further, there must be more freedom in choice of texts for special schools, such as those in which Mexican or other foreign elements prevail.

trial of texts to determine whether or not they are satisfactory should be considered in construction of curricula also, as well as for the sake of economy through short-time contracts. The state should be canvassed to see if texts are proving satisfactory or not. The public should be kept informed of every move and contemplated action of the Textbook Commission, says that there is to be a change, but they should be told the reasons for the change, and should be given a general review of the textbook situation regularly through the public press and otherwise.

From Waste to Thrift

Enough wasted capital to build homes for all!

The United States Government thinks so much of the THRIFT movement that it is expending many thousands of dollars annually to keep the thought before the people. Whether we are so intentionally or not the fact remains that the American nation is extremely wasteful in its habits. It is easy for each one of us to make a list of the things we buy habitually which are of little or no value to us. But, when we are thinking along this line, we should not forget the one wasteful practice which the majority of families indulge in—that of buying rent receipts.

The purchasing of rent receipts is so needless, too. The landlord, be he kind or otherwise, always has us at his mercy. He can raise the rent on us at any time, or he can order us to vacate his property at his convenience, without any regard for our wishes or possible losses. It is true that we live in a house meanwhile, but it can never be a real HOME, because HOME signifies possession; and our possession of a rented house or apartment is always precarious.

We all want a home, too. The wife longs for it and the kiddies constantly ask why they can not plant that flower garden or put up that bird-cote or do a thousand and one other things that normal children want to do—and can not when they are homeless. Even the little ones themselves are often barred from the rented apartment—and that means a terrible loss alike to the married couple, the community and the nation.

And you can have a home for what your useless rent receipts cost you. Did you ever stop and think for a few consecutive moments along that line? For instance, you pay a rental of $40 per month—very modest in these days—well in ten years that will aggregate $4,800, for which you can build a home equally as good as the one which you can get for that rental. And so you can add the rent you pay in any twelve months and multiply it by ten and there is your HOME.

But, suppose you can not put out that amount at once. Here is where Thrift comes in at the door and Waste is forced to fly out at the window—or any other available opening. Have you ever considered that the average cost of cosmetics, chewing gum, sodas and soft drinks, joy rides and pleasure resorts is $276.00 a year for every man, woman and child in the United States? That is what Uncle Sam says, based on the figures secured by the census bureau.

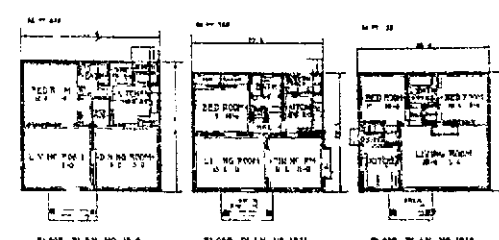

Now, here are yourself and wife—suppose you have no little ones in your family as yet. There is an average of $452.00 a year for these luxuries, to say nothing of a hundred others that may be named. Can you not save out of these other things for a few years only, sufficient to pay the interest on the sum of money which will buy you real Home? You will not have to give them up—by no means. But, by a little care you can lop off here and there a dollar or five or ten, until, before you know it, you have your own home and are on "Easy Street."

Waste is not alone spending foolishly—it also comprises failure to spend wisely.

What more sensible expenditure can You make than when buying a HOME?

The last few years have seen more home-buyers than any century previous—all because men and women are listening to the voices of their better natures and providing places where children may develop with their trees and flowers and pets, and where husbands and wives may grow into fathers and mothers who are both wise and generous.

The road to Thrift ever leads away from Waste; the buying of a home is the most Thrifty thing you have ever contemplated or achieved. And, by far the best way to buy a home is to build one.

PLANS NOS. 1920-1921-1922

Here are ideas for the little home you have been contemplating building. The exterior reflects one of the most attractive homes ever developed, and the three floor plans contain such a variety of arrangements and conveniences that you cannot help but find in one of them just the plan you will want to adopt to build from, and later, if you care to do so, additional rooms may be added as needed.

We are endeavoring to feature plans and arrangements that will meet your approval, plans that you will want to secure and build from, and, as this service is being featured for your convenience, mail this coupon.

EUBANKS URGES DEMOCRATS TO JOIN VICTORY CLUBS

It is absolutely certain that Coolidge is already defeated," is the assertion made by C. W. Jurney for many years secretary to former Senator Chas. A. Culberson and now occupying a similar position with Senator Royal S. Copeland of New York.

This conviction is expressed in a letter to Judge John L. Young of Dallas, Associate Director of Finance for Texas, Democratic National Committee," says a statement issued by A. H. Eubanks, county Finance Director, who is urging all Democrats of the county to join the Victory Clubs and by their contributions, however modest, to aid in the election of John W. Davis, the Democratic presidential nominee.

Mr. Jurney, a Texan, who long has been in touch with the national political pulse, wrote Judge Young as follows:

"There is no question about Coolidge's defeat, for Davis has 206 more votes and LaFollette 60, which makes 266 or a majority of the electoral college which makes it utterly impossible for Coolidge to win there.

"The only question is whether Davis, in the remaining weeks can get a clear majority in the electoral college, or whether the contest will go to the House, but in either event, he is certain of selection in the electoral college or in the House."

"You can put it down that it is going to be president John W. Davis after March 4, for if he falls of a majority on Nov. 4, he will get a majority in the House. There will be a joint session of the House and Senate on the second Wednesday in February, 1925 to count the vote.

"This fall on February 11, next year, and if nobody receives a majority after the vote is canvassed, the House will then proceed to the election of a president and there is no question that, if it goes that far, Coolidge will be entirely out of it and the only question will be in whether it will be Davis or Bryan. There is no doubt in the mind of anyone in Washington about the result in that sort of contingency, for the Republicans would boldly vote for Davis before they would let Bryan have it. The Democrats are going to win in one of these two ways.

"In the 206 votes for Davis that no can take away from his are not included those of New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Indiana, Ohio or Illinois, and he has a fine chance to pick up sixty votes in these States and get a clear majority in the college.

"Regarding the situation in New York, Coolidge will lose one million votes on Nov. 4, which went to Harding four years ago. Four hundred thousand of these, the German block, are going to vote for LaFollette. A hundred thousand block, the negro vote, is going to be for Davis on account of his opposition to the Ku Klux Klan. A block of three or four hundred thousand Jewish and Italian votes is going to be divided between Davis and LaFollette on account of the new Republican immigration law.

"Tammany is more interested in putting Davis over than it has been in any National campaign since Tilden, in 1876, and it can be depended upon to vote to the limit. Davis has helped himself greatly by his wonderful campaign, and with the help of Al Smith, I believe we are going to carry New York. If we do, New Jersey, Connecticut and Rhode Island will swing to him."

CANNON-MONAGHAN Mr. Temp Cannon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Cannon, and Miss LaVerna Monaghan, daughter of Mr. R. Y. Monaghan, were united in marriage in Mexia Sunday, and left for a visit to relatives in Marlin. This is an event that has been expected by friends for sometime. They are two of our most respected young people, both of large, influential families, and have the best wishes of a host of friends.—Thornton Hustler.

SCHOOL NOTES

The Athenaeum Society met last Thursday in the study hall. Officers were elected for the next six months. Those elected were Frances Vickers, president; Eileen Hickman, vice-president; Rita Cox, secretary; Daphna Robbins, treasurer; Joy Adams, parliamentarian and Dorothy Brown, reporter. The club then adjourned to meet the following Thursday.—Reporter.

17 Congregations Numbered Here In Revival Meeting

The above church is now bringing to a close a wonderful revival at the McKinney St. School. In more ways than first place we were in securing Evangelist Whitewright, Texas, to do the preaching in the Evangelist Carter is perhaps the best Bible student in preaching in Mexia. He repeats more Bible than ever heard in this town, and common saying over the heads of those who have heard him. He is a stranger here, there being no one here in Mexia who have known him all his life, and many others who have been hearing him preach for more than 25 years. No man has ever stood before any people, with less fear, with the good book in his hands, and told that what God said for them to do, than Evangelist Carter.

The Church reforces over the fact to show the love, respect, and honor, people have in this "man of God", they came for more than 35 miles several nights, among the members were Elder John Hodge, also T. C. McDaniel, who has been in many meetings with Bro. Carter. In fact there have been in attendance at this meeting 17 congregations of the Church of Christ.

Since the meeting has been in progress, Evangelist Carter has aroused in his members the desire to build them a house of worship. So they are now looking out a location, and it is hoped in the near future they will soon have a house of their own. There has been several additions to the Church up to this date (Saturday). Several are to be baptized Sunday. This Church is now trying to engage Evangelist Carter for another meeting in 1925. You are invited to hear him Lord's Day at 11 o'clock, also at 7:15 p. m. Subject is, "Faith, What is it, and how does it come?"—Reporter.

J. E. Phillips has returned from Haynesville, La., where he has been visiting his daughter, Miss O. Phillips, who is teaching there this year. He also visited other relatives in that section.

Miss Ida Moss Wilkerson of Dallas is visiting Miss Frances Corley. She has been the recipient of many social honors the past week.

Friday afternoon, Miss Ellington entertained in honor of Miss Wilkerson of Dallas, with two tables of bridge.

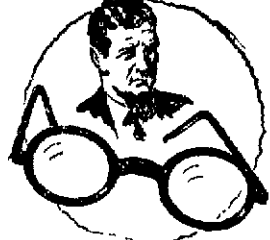

Mrs. Joe Shearer and daughter, Miss Jessamine, attended the Dallas fair Saturday.

Mrs. N. P. Houx and daughters, Misses Lurline and Lela Beets, went up to the fair Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Sinclair went up to Dallas Saturday to visit their sons, Lister and Leslie, and to attend the big fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Vornack returned Friday night from a few weeks absence to New York and other eastern cities.

Harvey Storey, an old Mexiaite now living in Dallas, was in the city Saturday visiting his brother, Reuben, and other relatives.

BRITAIN MAY HAVE COALITION CABINET

From David Lloyd George, Lord Balfour, Sir Robert Borden, Winston Churchill.

New dispatches from London indicate that no party will secure a working majority in the new Parliament, members of which will be elected October 29. Some experts believe the new Ministry will either be a predominantly de-facto Tory Cabinet, headed by ex-Premier Stanley Baldwin, or the revival of a Coalition Ministry, such as carried Great Britain through the World War. In the event of a Coalition Government, ex-Premier David Lloyd George, Winston Churchill, Sir Robert Borden and Lord Balfour are expected to have prominent portfolios.

Chicago Tribune Locks Horns With Associated Press

(By United Press)

CHICAGO, Oct. 24. In an editorial published "Associated Press Times To Shut Off Radio Service," The Chicago Tribune, today challenged the right of the Associated Press to prohibit member papers from broadcasting news or election bulletins to which the news agency is "exclusively" entitled.

The notice served on the Tribune by the Associated Press raises an issue of interest to radio users as well as newspaper managers and readers, the editorial stated.

"The notice in effect forbids the broadcasting of election news by newspapers using the Associated Press Service," the editorial declared in part. "News gathered by the Tribune, by reason of its membership in the Associated Press, is available to the A. P. and becomes a part of the news matter of the association."

"Thus the notice referred to, if not resisted, would prevent the Tribune from sending out through its radio service broadcasting station, WGN, any local election news gathered by its own reporters."

"The Tribune and other newspapers broadcasting derive no profit or tangible benefit from broadcasting which involves a considerable expenditure without direct return or material compensation. The service is maintained for such advertising value as it may have and in the expectation that the service will make friends for the newspaper which gives it."

Hereafter the practice has been to flash election returns on screens in front of newspaper offices, thereby subjecting the spectators to the vagaries of the weather, the Tribune stated. Now the people can be saved in their own homes by radio.

"We think that this is a great addition to the comfort, convenience and interest of living in our modern world, and we are quite sure the Associated Press can not shut it off any more than the Luddites of Nottingham could stop the introduction of machinery in 1817," the editorial continued.

"In our opinion an attempt to prevent the broadcasting of election results is bound to be futile."

It is unlikely that this new resource will injure the newspapers, the Tribune said.

"The fear resembles that of the fear of improvements in machinery in industry," the editorial stated. "Adjustments may have to be made, but a great advance in human resource cannot be defeated by anything it ought not to."

"There may be legal obstacles in the way of our giving to the public the full value of our news broadcasting service, but if so, we intend to test them in the courts and, if possible, overcome them, as we are confident we can."

SPORTLIGHTS

By SCRIBBLES

The Mexia Hi Black Cats had a little trouble in getting started with their drive against the Hubbard Jack Rabbits but when they did, nothing stopped them. During the first quarter they scored but one counter and in the second quarter they scored fourteen points more bringing the total to twenty one.

Up to that period of the game it looked like the Hubbard boys were going to do the unexpected and hold the Cats down. A big blonde headed youngster by the name of Weatherby who was captain of the Hubbard aggregation and played center on the offense and on defense played an end was easily the highlight of the Hubbard aggregation. He was in nearly every play and had it not been for him the Cats would have piled up a larger score and then, if they had had two or three more players like him the score would have been smaller.

In the second quarter the Jack Rabbits started a forward pass attack but it was finally broke up but Coach Potret had to pull two or three men before they were unable to successfully curb it. After the passes had been stopped he sent in five subs and gave his first string men a little rest.

All of the Cats turned in good games but that turned in by Dickinson, Thompson and Clover in the backfield was noticeable. Auda Hoelzel turned in good games on the wing positions while Corley and Bennett played good games in the line also.

Cisco and Brockbridge played a 0 to 0 tie Friday and that tie game may be the wrecking of Cisco's chances for the State championship as Chigger Browne, the half who scored the touchdown that beat Abilene this year and also scored the only touchdown against them last year, was taken from the game with a broken arm.

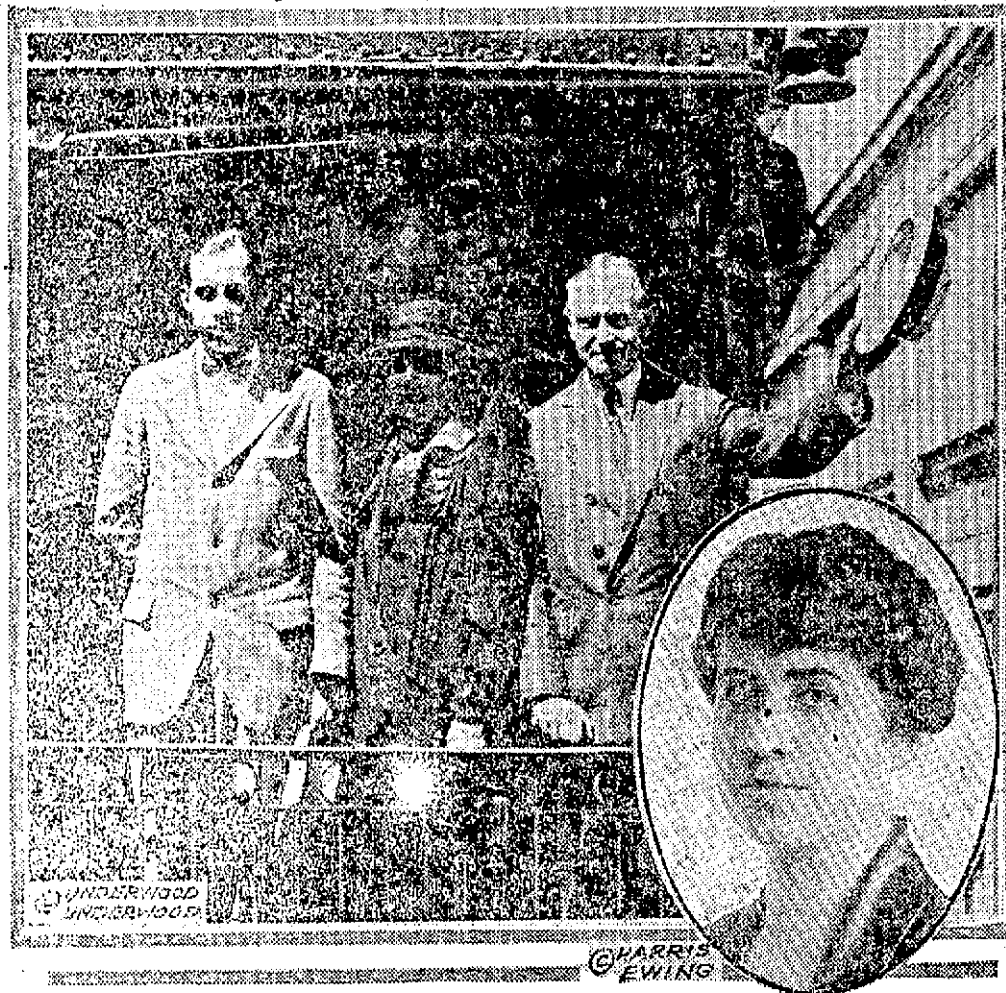

The Waco Hi Tigers defeated the Corsicana Hi Tigers in Corsicana Friday 43 to 0. The Corsicana defense was poor and the Wacoans had little trouble of scoring. Mays and Varnell played the best games for Corsicana.

Marlin Hi took another step towards the district championship when they did away with the Hillsboro Eagles to the tune of 23 to 0. That Marlin gang is stepping some with Burr Russell and Lenoir showing the form that they have shown for their previous High School years.

Passes by the Southwestern Pirates sent the Trinity Tigers down in defeat 7 to 3. The Tigers could not break up the passing game of the Pirates who passed at every opportunity.

Morrison saved Trinity from being scored on in the final minute of play by downing Weeks on the 2 yard line after receiving a 49 yard pass from Mateer. Morrison overtook Weeks to make the tackle.

"Do The Day's Work" Has Been Motto Of Calvin Coolidge During His Whole Career; He Sticks Close To His Job

When Calvin Coolidge was Governor of Massachusetts one of his utterances often quoted, was "Do the day's work." Since the death of President Harding, Mr. Coolidge has given the country and the whole world an example of practicing what he preaches. He has done the day's work every day, even if he had to work far into the night to do it.

The only vacation the President has had this year was a short trip to his native village of Plymouth, Vermont, where he visited his father. The arduous business of being President of the greatest country in the world makes necessary some rest and relaxation, a change from the terrific grind that was mostly responsible for the death of President Coolidge's predecessor.

The President has stated publicly that the business of being President will take too much of his time to permit of making a campaign. The Republican National Committee under the leadership of William M. Butler of Massachusetts will do that. Mr. Coolidge, except for his brief visit to Vermont, is staying on the job in Washington, doing the day's work.

The picture above shows the President and Mrs. Coolidge, with their son John, as they left Washington for the short respite from work and the heat of a Washington summer. The President was snatched by the photographer just as he was waving a farewell to the crowd gathered at the station to see him off.

His vacation was spent in hard work, but work of another sort. Much of the time he wore overalls. He gets his exercise with a plow instead of a set of golf sticks. He is on more intimate terms with a pitchfork than a polo pony. Mrs. Coolidge's face is shaded by her hat in the picture taken with her distinguished husband and her son. The other picture gives an idea of the attractive First Lady of the Land, whose charm and tact have captivated Washington. Before her marriage she was Miss Grace Anna Goodhue, of Northampton. She married Calvin Coolidge October 4, 1905, when he was a young lawyer practicing in Northampton.

The Eleven from St. Edwards College defeated the Daniel Baker High School Friday afternoon at Brownwood 7 to 0.

The New York Giants and the Chicago White Sox played an exciting game for several British "fans." The Giants won the game 3 to 2, scoring 2 runs in the ninth. The Duke and Duchess of York were among the spectators as was the son of King George.

The S. M. U. Colts defeated Burleson College in Dallas Friday 7 to 6.

10,000 VISITORS ARE EXPECTED AT MERCHANDISE SHOWER

SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE WALLACE IS DEAD

GEO. BUTTE GIVEN LARGE HEARING IN MEXIA SATURDAY

TUESDAY'S TRIP TO FIND MANY WOMEN WITH CROWD

Indications now are that the largest crowd of visitors that has ever been in Mexia, except on Circus days will be here Saturday, Nov. Eighth.

Great interest is being manifested on all sides and almost every merchant has signified intention of sending a car in the trade trip Tuesday. This occasion has really taken on the aspect of a picnic excursion as many ladies are going just for the fun of making the trip.

Mr. C. A. Puckett has consented to let six young ladies off from school duties on that day and a like number of boys. These will be furnished a fine new Studebaker car for the trip by the Mexia Motor Car Co.

Great praise is due the Union Carpenters of Mexia who have expressed a willingness to Mr. McElroy to build the pyramid display stand at intersection of Sherman and Commerce Streets without cost to the merchants.

The lumber has been secured also without cost from the Neece Lumber Co.

It is urged that everybody, whether a contributor or not go to Higdon-McElroy's and secure a banner for their car and join in the trade trip Tuesday.

Cromwell Dance Hall Is Still Under Fire

(By United Press) KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 25.—A business man and a justice of the peace from Cromwell, Ok., testified before the United States Commissioner here yesterday that the dance hall conducted by Mrs. Mattie Jonas, arrested on a charge of attempting to violate the Mann act had been run in an orderly fashion.

Rex Eversole, Bunham, Texas, arrested with Mrs. Jonas was released when the woman testified she had nothing to do with the management of the hall.

Vivian Wilcox, Tulsa, Ok., testified for the Government that she had worked in the dance hall two nights and had danced with men that were intoxicated. She also said she had a quarrel with Mrs. Jonas and the latter used vile language in discharging her. This testimony was refuted by A. H. Husbands, Cromwell man, who said he was present at the time and heard Mrs. Jonas make no vile remarks.

The hearing will be resumed on Monday.

OPEN HEARINGS ABANDONED TO PROBE SIDE ANGLES

By FRAZIER EDWARDS (United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Senate campaign fund probes today abandoned open-hearings for the time being to give their individual scrutiny to startling circumstantial evidence, "laid before them yesterday by Samuel Untermeyer, counsel for Senator La Follette.

The evidence, if substantiated, will have a profound effect upon the republican campaign. Untermeyer said, but thus far it is with out corroboration, he added.

No inkling of the character of the evidence was permitted to leak out. Chairman Borah, when asked if he could disclose its general character repeated his court announcement that the "question is still being considered by the committee."

"It's a great story, if it is true," was all that Senator Caraway would say.

HOUSTON BOUND CANDIDATE IS CORDIALLY RECEIVED

"There's no bootlegger for me for Governor," was the parting shot taken by Dr. George Butte, in a short speech he made to between 400 and 500 voters of this community from the passenger coach on the Houston bound train which passed through here at noon Saturday.

His address was only for about ten minutes, during which time he hastily summed up the political situation in Texas today, denounced Fergusonism as a menace to the political well being of the State and concluded with words of praise for the preachers, teachers, and other apostles of honesty in government who are backing his campaign for Governor of Texas.

The fact that Dr. Butte was scheduled to make a short talk here was not known in Mexia until Friday night. The letter carrying the announcement was misrouted to points south of here and did not return until on the late afternoon train, too late for press notice.

The large crowd that assembled so hurriedly, chiefly gotten together by the use of the telephone Saturday morning, was a distinct surprise. Many veteran Democrats of the county, scores of women, most of the pastors of the city and local Republicans formed the crowd.

Dr. Butte said that similar responses were being given all through Texas and that from the Panhandle to the Coast there is going on today a political revolution which is certain to wrest the State from the menace of Fergusonism at the General Election in November.

He was introduced by Hon J. H. Byers, an attorney of this city who served as instructor under him at the Law School of the University of Texas when he first identified himself with that institution. "I was under him two years as a student," Mr. Byers said "and I know two years under him will prove worth while to Texas."

Dr. Butte said that it was a pleasure to him to speak in Limestone county, in the midst of monuments lifted by labor, and here see the fruits resulting from the development of the resources of Texas. He referred to his work with the oil and gas division of the Railroad Commission in this connection and then asserted that if he was elected Governor of Texas, he now pledged his earnest endeavor in bringing about conditions in government out of which agriculture, industry and economy might work for the fullest development of the matchless resources of the great commonwealth.

"An emergency has arisen in the political history of the State of Texas, a crisis which calls to every liberty loving citizen who believes in Clean Politics and Honesty in public office to lay aside every selfish consideration and exercise his or her right to vote in accordance with the dictates of right conscience regardless of previous or present political affiliations."

"From the Panhandle to the Gulf I find that the people are aroused to the fact that our highest court has been assailed. Political intrigue has threatened the will of the people. A great body of our citizens are earnestly seeking to right these wrongs and administer a deserved rebuke to those responsible for this invasion of the rights of the people. The issue in this campaign is whether or not Fergusonism shall be reestablished politically in this state. Our people are alarmed and are not willing to entrust an office to a man who would and could not be held accountable for his deeds done in office.

Several times during the address, a speaker was greeted by general applause. Each time he smiled broadly at the reception and waved a good bye as the train pulled away from the station.

Residence Fire On South Bellnap Street Early Friday Night

A two story frame rooming house owned by H. T. Capell and occupied by Mrs. Ruby Brownlee was almost totally destroyed at 6:50 o'clock Friday night. The building is located in the King block on South Bellnap street and is reported about 50 per cent damaged. Practically all of the upper story being burned, about $200.00 loss was reported by Mrs. Brownlee in furniture and private property.

The fire looked as if the whole King block would be wiped out at the start, but the local fire department did excellent work despite the fact that they only had city pressure to fight the blaze with. Cox Brothers, owners of the King Grocery store, near the scene of the fire made a donation of $5.00 to each member of the fire force in appreciation of their splendid work in preventing the fire from reaching adjoining property.

The fire is reported to have started from an oil stove in the home of Mrs. Brownlee. No insurance was carried on building or furniture.

ROW NOW BREW-
ING ON INCOME TAX PUB.

(By United Press)

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 25—Declaring the Treasury Department's attitude toward publication of income tax lists conflicts with the intention of Congress Senator Robert M. La Follette today telegraphed
Senator Coughlin of Michigan, chairman of the special treasury department investigating committee, urging him to summon secretary of the treasury Mellon and Commissioner of Internal Revenue Blair and "ask them by what authority they seek
to subvert the will of the people."

La Follette's telegram:

"Newspapers carry reports that
Commissioner of Internal Revenue
Blair has issued warning threatening newspapers with fine and imprisonment if they publish lists of tax payers and income taxes paid by them which have been opened to inspection under mandatory provisions of revenue law.

"I believe Blair's threat violates the spirit of the publicly amendment of the law and subverts the intent of Congress that the public should know who is paying taxes and how much they pay. The purpose of this amendment was to provide a means of checking up on a tax dodgers by exposing the facts to public scrutiny. This purpose will be defeated if publication is prevented.

"Secretary Mellon is quoted as saying Congress did not intend to permit newspaper publication to satisfy idle curiosity. Mellon may regard it as idle curiosity for the public to desire to know who is paying taxes and who is dodging them,
but Congress did not so regard it
when they passed this amendment
at the end of the fight extending
over more than ten years.

"This is another example of the arrogance of Mellon in getting himself up as a judge over Congress, similar in purpose to his action in attempting to block investigation by the Senate of his own department.

"I urge you to call Mellon and Blair immediately before your committee and ask them by what authority they seek to subvert the will of Congress."

more sincere and better informed than any other in the State.

stantial majority over both his opponents.

MEXIA HI BLACK CATS EASY VICTORS OVER THE HUBBARD CITY JACKRABBITS

The Mexia Hi Black Cats romped away to an easy 61 to 0 victory over the Hubbard City Jackrabbits Friday afternoon on the local gridiron. At no time during the game was the Black Cats goal in danger as the visitors were unable to make any headway through the Cat line and the local boys had them far outclassed in the overhead route, although they managed to complete several passes but no spectacular runs were made from this process.

On the visitors team all eyes were on the tall blond headed center, end and what not, who seemed to be everywhere at once. This spectacular player was Weatherby, the Captain of the Hubbard Jackrabbits who never gave up spirit although fighting almost a lone game against the machine like team of Coach Potteet. Weatherby was generally heralded as deserving more credit than any man on the field for his spirit and football ability, the spirit of the two teams was very noticeable to the spectators. It can be remembered when there was more rivalry between these two schools than any other in this district, and consequently some hard feeling, but Friday's game was a real treat to the lover of real fair sports.

The local boys never played better football in their lives than they did Friday afternoon, the most spectacular were Parkinson, Clover, and Karner who was always there with the goods when it came time to kick goal. While Buford was at his best fighting spirit and made many substantial gains, and was called on to kick goal after touchdown several times. Auld also played an excellent game as did practically every player Coach Potteet sent to the field.

Referee: Arrington; Umpire: Moody; Head linesman: Evans.
HOW THE SCORES WERE MADE
First Quarter

Hubbard City won the toss and decided to defend the south goal. Mexia kicked off to Hubbard who lost the ball before making a play. The Cats made a line plunge, a successful pass for 15 yards, and then Parkinson plunged over left tackle for 8 yards and a touchdown. The first score coming after one minute fifty seconds of play. Karner kicked goal. Score end of first quarter Mexia 7, Hubbard 0.

Second Quarter
Auld made a spectacular 35 yard run for touchdown and Karner kicked goal again. Buford made a touchdown through the line in the last few minutes of the first half and also kicked goal making the score at the end of the first half, Mexia, 21; Hubbard 0.

Third Quarter
Thompson made a nice run for the goal for the third time this touchdown and Karner made good game putting the score 28 to 0. Hoezel recovered a Mexia fumble behind the goal line for the next goal and Karner kicked goal. The score at the end of the third quarter, Mexia 35; Hubbard 0.

Fourth Quarter
Perkinson made a beautiful ten yard run for touchdown and Buford made a 40 yard run for a touchdown on a returned punt. Karner failed to make the goal good but it was counted by the referee as a penalty goal which made Mexia 48, the visitors 0. Auld caught a nice pass and made 30 yards for the next touchdown. Karner failed to make goal. The last touchdown of the game came when plucky little Buford made a right end run for 25 yards, Hoezel kicked good making the final score, Mexia 61, Hubbard City 0.

T. A. GOSSIP

By HECK

With a meeting of the Texas Association coming up in the near future I have been getting what dope there is together about what the moguls intend to do about the rookie rule and just what will be the final "status" of the Waco franchise—not so much the franchise but the correct status of Harry Dupuy the Waco club owner. Dupuy has sent a letter the various club owners informing them that he has asked president Johnston to call a special meeting of the league as he (Dupuy) is withdrawing the Waco franchise from the T-A circuit, but to date I have not had any news of president Johnston calling the meeting. Just what Dupuy has on his mind I know is hard for you fans to understand but from where I sit, sat or set it is an open and shut affair since it is no trouble to figure what is on Harry's mind after you once know him—and all the club owners know him from the ground up. My hunch is that Dupuy figures that he can escape paying his indebtedness to the League if he withdraws the Waco franchise from a league whenever the notion strikes him but instead can only do so with the consent of the club owners comprising the league. Personally, I think Dupuy is bluffing and knows that he can't get away with the stuff he is now trying to pull but at the same time I think it is high time for the club owners to get busy and get Dupuy out of the League. This can be done by the club owners voting Dupuy out—NOT the Waco franchise and if this course is taken it is then up to Dupuy to appeal to the National Association and then Judge Landis and in either case I fully believe that the action of the other club owners will be upheld. The matter of electing a president must also come up at an early date and I am in hopes that the club owners select a man who lives in the league and one who is capable of handling its affairs in a prompt and vigorous manner. I have no kick against A. B. Johnston for I believe he did his very best and there is no doubt but what he handled two very trying situations during the past season in a splendid manner and for which he is due the thanks of the league. The idea of J. Doak Roberts of Dallas as president of the T-A loop is to be passed over with regrets to Doak as he is not the man even though he is the strongest and best posted baseball man in the south but the T-A loop needs a man who has the league's affairs at heart and who can be close enough to be in touch with everything and everybody. In this connection I do not think that a better man than J. G. McIntosh of Mexia could be found and I know that if the club owners knew him as I do they would not hesitate a single second in placing the genial Mac in the president's chair. McIntosh knows baseball from the ground up. Knows it from organizing to the final game of the season, and all the little inroads and perplexing problems that come up during a seasons play. McIntosh knows baseball law backwards and in my opinion is the best student of the game in the league, and many other leagues and this one fact alone makes him the logical man for the place. I know at least two club owners that are favorable to McIntosh as president and it would be a great thing for the league if these two would use their influence toward his election as I have no doubt but what their influence would just about settle the matter. President McLendon of the Gushers is back home and with noddies of dope, opinions and explanations of the world's series and naturally is vociferous in his praise of Fred Marberry former

As was forecast when she secured her Paris divorce from Julius Fleischmann, Cincinnati, O., and New York "yeast king," Mrs. Julius Fleischmann has been married in Paris to Jay O'Brien, young American polo player. Before she married Fleischmann, Mrs. O'Brien was the wife of Louis Hemisway, silk manufacturer.

"For Mexia, I Will"
WHEN REASON REIGNS

The most difficult thing to do is to think. If anyone should doubt it, let him try it some time.

To rise above prejudice, and passion and personal interest and think a subject through to an inevitable, logical conclusion, starting from an axiom and keeping in mind only demonstrable facts and proved principles, ah, this is a feat.

Our fears, our hopes, our avarice, our ingrained prejudices, our hatreds, determine our opinions and convictions more often than our reason. He is a big man who can separate himself wholly from the narrowness of personal aversions and dislikes and the pettiness of selfish interest and give a clear, unbiased judgment upon an issue in which he is more or less personally concerned.

One of the sure signs that a person is thinking in the terms of prejudice and passion rather than of rational thought is his quick descent in an argument to the use of epithets and the impugning of motives.

It is much easier to transfix your opponent with an opprobrious adjective than to disprove his argument, much simpler to overwhelm him with billingsgates than to contradict his facts, easier to impute base motives than to prove his logic fallacious.

So fundamentalists call the liberal "anti-Christ" and modernists retorts "old fogey." Republican calls the Democrat "radical" and the Progressive "red" and they return the compliment by sneering allusions to Wall Street. Our friends of the religious press are sometimes eloquent in the language of vituperation, and while in one column there may be a tearful plea for tolerance and gentle sympathy in the treatment of all questions, throughout the other pages the vocabulary of abuse is exhausted, and the epithets bigot, fanatic and liar are the simplest and the kindest.

But while there may be temporary applause for the vehement editor who lays about him with the most uproarious verbal lashings, because the populace always loves a fight, in the long run prejudice, passion and hatred must yield to facts and reason.

I never knew a night so black light failed to follow in its track. I never knew a storm so gray it failed to have its clearing day. I never knew such bleak despair that there was not a rift somewhere. I never knew an hour so drear love could not fill it full of cheer.—John Kendrick Bangs.

"Wait for the wagon and we'll all take a ride with Ma and Jim," writes a Milam county Jimmie. Well, he'd better not wait for those penitentiary wagons that were shipped to Louisiana and reforwarded to Jim's farm. Those wagons are a total Texas loss.—Geo. Bailey in Houston Post-Dispatch.

The Inquisitive Idiot wants to know if a colored cemetery should be referred to as a "blackberry patch?"—Sam Miller in Mineral Wells Index.

THE EDITORIAL OF THE DAY

WELCOME THE DOCTORS.
(Mineral Wells Index).

And we have with us today the doctors. Let us welcome them with a hospitality worthy of their calling. There are only two professions that paramount that of practicing medicine. One is the minister, the other, the editor. The doctor saves the body, the minister saves the souls and the editors job is to save the doctors and ministers.

There are a number of things that doctors and editors have in common and any number of things in which there is a great dissimilarity. They are alike in that neither get all the money they earn; the doctor gets cussed for things that nature does and the editor gets abused for saying things other people think and haven't the nerve to say.

Doctors have a great advantage over editors in lots of ways. They can use big words and get by with them but when an editor tries to use them he has to spell them. A doctor can write in such a way that no one but a druggist can read it; an editor writes in such a way that everybody can read it but they won't. If a doctor calls on a man's wife he sends the bill to the husband and he pays it, if an editor calls on a man's wife he gets shot. A doctor is the only person on earth who can make us sick at our stomach and then make us pay him for it. But we need him all the way from the cradle to the grave.

He ushers in the population of the earth and when a baby is born he's present and gets twenty-five dollars for his services. If the editor fails to give the early arrival a favorable notice he loses a subscription. But doctors, like editors, accumulate a lot of abuse when their patients blame them for their own abuse of nature. The doctors have kept experimenting until today people live several years longer than they did a few years ago, but so far no one has given a reason why they should.

We poke fun at the medical profession when we're well but when we get sick we send in a hurry call for the best one we know. Some doctors are a detriment to the community in which they live, due to the fact that they, through their skill, keep alive a lot of people that seriously obstruct the progressive view of the community.

Seriously, let every citizen of Mineral Wells make it a point to lend his aid to making this visit of the doctors of the Northwest Texas Medical Association, the most pleasant one of its history.

He Sets Record in Making Hits of Songs
FRED WARING

Fred Waring and His College Orchestra Have Popularized 500 Ditties

A record in song popularization is claimed by Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians. Mr. Waring estimated recently that at least five hundred hits have received their first impetus toward popularity from being played by his orchestra.

The Pennsylvanians are all former students of the University of Pennsylvania. They began to play together on campus in their freshman year. A college chorus was the first song they started on the road to fame and "Blackin' Blues" is the latest.

"Blackin' Blues" is, of course, a far better song than the other," says Mr. Waring. "But one was almost as easy to popularize as the other. That is because popular song lovers are like sheep. They follow the leader. A song makes a hit with somebody and is played a few times. People begin to think it is the fashion."

"This is particularly true of college campuses. One college campus takes up a song and every school in the country follows suit. This really means that everybody else will join in too, for the colleges set most of the popular song modes."

HUGE SUM ASKED FOR G. O. P. CAMPAIGN

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 23.—

The Republican national committee's announcement that contributions to the Coolidge-Dawes campaign fund have been limited to $25,000 from any individual or corporation doesn't mean anything, says Chairman Clem L. Shaver, of the Democrats National Committee, for the reason that the Republican financiers know how to manipulate subscriptions, just as was done four years ago, and as has been done this year in President Coolidge's home state, Massachusetts, where the law is being open flouted.

Four years ago, after the sensational disclosures of efforts of Managers of Governor Lowden and Major General Leonard Wood to purchase the Republican nomination, Chairman Will Hays, of the Republican National committee, announced that subscriptions had been limited to $1,000. Yet an investigation by the Senate committee headed by Senator Kenyon, of Iowa, showed that the Republican National Committee expended more than $6,000,000 to elect Harding and Coolidge, and that more than $2,600,000 more was expended thru State committees. That this was not all may be stated on as high an authority as the Kenyon committee which said, in its report, "These figures do not by any means represent the entire amount of money expended in the campaign," for many contributions and expenditures were covered up and never disclosed.

For example, during the investigation of the naval oil leases, led by Senator Walsh, of Montana, it was disclosed that after the campaign, Harry F. Sinclair, to whom Teapot Dome was leased by Secretary of the Interior, Full, underwrote $75,000 of the debt Chairman Hays' committee ran up in the 1920 campaign, but official reports of subscriptions to the campaign fund contain no reference to such financial aid from Mr. Sinclair.

This year, a committee of big mill owners of Massachusetts which are enjoying a huge tariff bounty under the Fordney bill, has been raising an enormous fund in that state to assure the election of Mr. Coolidge. The Massachusetts law stipulates that individual subscriptions may not exceed $1,000. But in appealing for larger sums, the Massachusetts Coolidge committee wrote to prospective contributors that "large contributions will be so divided as to give full observance to the requirements of the law." Even Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, admitted that such a plan was outside the law.

No limitation was placed on Republican campaign subscriptions in 1922, and one of the large contributors of that year, R. B. Mellon, of Pittsburgh, brother of Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon, gave $25,000 to the National Committee in 1922 and $1,000 more to the Congressional Committee.

R. D. Mellon and his brother, the Secretary of the Treasury, are the principal owners of the Aluminum Company of America, the aluminum trust, the beneficiary of the Fordney tariff law to the extent of an increase of more than 200 per cent in tariff duties on aluminum and aluminum utensils. This is the company which the Federal Trade Commission has cited as a monopoly but which the Department of Justice has failed to permit from the Department of Labor to bring in outside of immigration quota workers from Canada to operate its plant near Niagara Falls New York at a time when there were two million or more idle laborers in America and is the company which the investigation of the Senate Committee headed by Senator Couzens of Michigan showed had been allowed an amortization claim in 1923 of more than $15,000,000 by the Treasury Department, of which Andrew M. Mellon, one of the two chief owners of the Aluminum Company, is the head.

Also R. D. Mellon is the man whom Senator LaFollette has publicly charged with heading a committee to raise a huge slush fund in Pennsylvania to help control the forthcoming election in favor of Coolidge and Dawes.

New Type of Car Stirs Automobile World

It is an open car one moment and 30 seconds later same car is entirely enclosed. Studebaker Duplex ends need of hunting for side curtains in the dark and storm

A new type of car has stirred the automobile world as has nothing since the abandonment of the "buggy" style of body building.

It is the Studebaker Duplex, so called to indicate that it is an open car one moment, and 30 seconds later it is an enclosed car.

Like all great advances in the industrial arts, it is "so simple in operation, it is a wonder it wasn't thought of before" —

Particularly since its need has been growing, year by year, ever since automobiles were made.

Many people all of the time, and most people part of the time, want an open car—to bring to their riding the fresh crispness of the country air, and a free and untrammelled association with the great outdoors.

Yet for these same people, the snug comfort of the closed car, shutting out the storm and the wind and the cold, has been at times a necessity.

Two cars in one

The Studebaker Duplex is both cars in one. Just pull down the roller enclosures concealed in the roof of the car. In 30 seconds the open car has been made an enclosed car.

No hurried efforts to put up curtains; no hunting for the right one while the storm beats in; no mixing them up in the dark; no exposure through holes torn in them while trying to obtain, for the emergency, the protection given by a closed car —

Just pull down the roller enclosures giving instant enclosed car effect.

The body is built substantially—sides, corners and roof frame are of steel. The roof has curved steel sides and back; hardwood front. Steel, U-shaped cross beams, six of them, support the water-proofed, duplex fabric top and its linings. Here is permanent beauty, no sagging tops.

But Studebaker, on which the whole vehicle-using world has come to depend for reliability, would not rest on only one real contribution to the value given the public.

It must give all that engineering ability could devise.

Striking new features

So there are offered three distinct models of cars, to meet each of the three fields of demand—the Standard Six, with 113-inch wheelbase and 50 horsepower motor; the Special Six, with 120-inch wheelbase and 65 horsepower motor; the Big Six, most magnificent and luxurious of its products, with 127-inch wheelbase and 75 horsepower motor.

Duplex bodies are available on each line. In addition, closed models have workmanship and materials and beauty of line so far above the price class of the car, they must be seen to be appreciated.

Of scarcely less importance than the Duplex feature are other improvements such as, automatic ignition system, lighting control on the steering wheel, new location of emergency brake, improved one-piece windshield and many others.

The body lines, steering mechanism, and even the fenders of the new Studebaker were designed especially for genuine balloon tires. Thus the body lines harmonize with grace and beauty hitherto unattainable, even by Studebaker.

Come in and see these new cars.

Platform of Good Government Demo. League of Texas

Be it resolved, by a conference of Texas Democrats, assembled in Dallas, Texas, on Saturday, September 27, 1924: We heartily agree with John W. Davis, our great National Democratic Leader, that the paramount question of the hour is honesty in office and that this great question transcends all party lines and party obligations; that it is the duty of every good citizen to vote against any nominee of his party in the November election if necessary in order to effectively express his opposition to corruption in office.

We are whole-hearted supporters of Davis and Bryan, and of the New York platform, but we are unalterably opposed to Fergusonism.

By Fergusonism we mean the sort of Government administered by James E. Ferguson as Governor of Texas as admitted in his sworn testimony before the High Court of Impeachment in 1917, which he then justified under oath as fully measuring up to his standards of honesty and of sound and wholesome government and which he now demands shall be "vindicated" by the people of Texas at the November election through his return to potential influence in the Governor's office at Austin.

We believe that the success of the Ferguson candidacy for Governor would work serious injury to the welfare of the State and its people during the next two years, would do irretrievable damage to the State's good name and would work untold moral injury to the youth of Texas and of America for all time by seemingly placing the seal of popular approval upon the Fergusonian standard of official conduct.

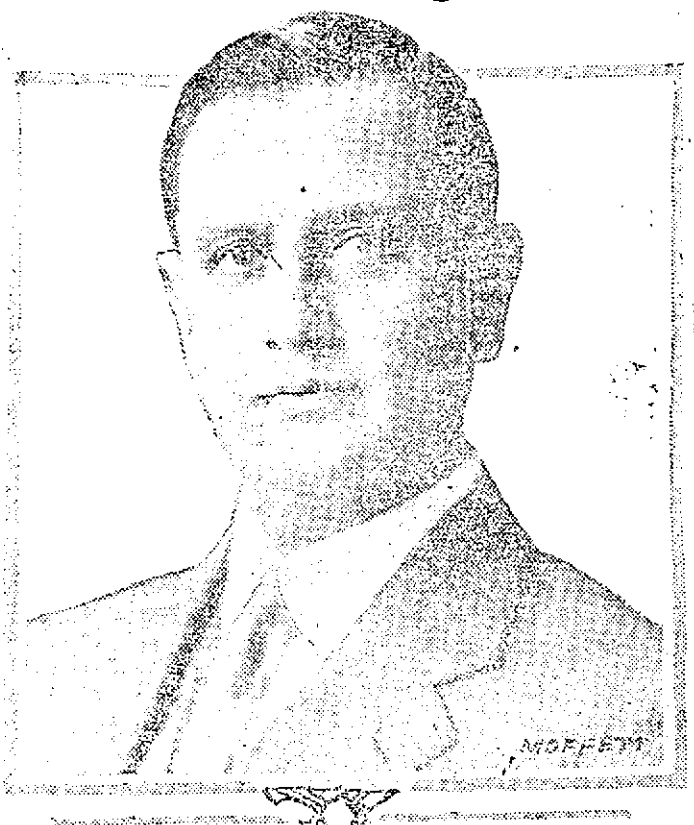

We agree with John W. Davis that no party obligation can justify a citizen in casting a vote which will injure the State and we assert that there can be no legal or moral obligation which binds any voter to cast a vote in violation of his conscience. The election Statutes of Texas, which provide for the primary election pledge to support the nominees, at the same time provide explicitly how voters of any party may lawfully vote for candidates for office not on their party tickets.

We believe that the interests of Good Government demand that the Klan controversy should be wholly eliminated from the pending campaign, and we earnestly desire to support for Governor of Texas a clean, able, honest, progressive candidate whose opposition to the Ku Klux Klan cannot be doubted.

We declare that the truest and best loyalty to the Democratic party demands that Texas Democrats should vote to defeat Fergusonism at the polls in November in order that the National Democratic Platform may not be repudiated; that the party may be relieved of responsibility for two years of Fergusonian Government and that it may be demonstrated to the Nation and to the world that the Democrats of Texas have never intended to vindicate Fergusonism or return it to power.

Are you one of those who spend your earnings in another city or town? Don't you think it would be a pretty good idea to spend it with your home town people, the people who support your churches, schools, city government? Think it over!

Indiana Leader In Lower Branch Of Congress Handling Speakers For National Coolidge Campaign

Successful national political campaigns are not carried on by hit-or-miss organizations. The party hoping for victory in November must build a thorough, efficient organization early in the campaign—a machine whose various departments are perfectly coordinated and well managed.

No phase of a campaign is more important than that having to do with the speakers, the missionaries who go out into the various states and discuss party policies in an effort to convince voters of the worth of their candidates. And the Republican National Committee, recognizing this truth, has given particular attention to this phase of its activities.

In selecting Representative Everett Sanders, of Terre Haute, Ind., as director of the Republican Speakers' Bureau, the National Committee made a splendid choice. He has proved by his activity in the House during eight years of service that he has all the qualifications essential to this work.

In his first campaign Representative Sanders contested against

Eugene V. Debs, and the Socialist Party made a great effort to win the seat. Sanders won, two to one. He has been a member of the House Republican Steering Committee during his last two terms, thus helping to direct the legislative program of that body, and is a member of the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee. Frequently he presided over the House when it has deliberated as a Committee of the Whole and is one of the ablest authorities on parliamentary law who ever sat in Congress. He always has taken an active part in House debates. Congressman Sanders was born in Cincinnati, Indiana, in 1882 and has been practicing law in Terre Haute since 1907. His success as director of the Speakers' Bureau is unquestioned. "Never in any campaign," he recently said, "has there been a more spontaneous response from men and women who wish to serve in the interests of the Republican party. The obvious desire of President Coolidge to safeguard the interests of all the people has assured his election."

HECK COMMENTS

By HECK

I journeyed over to Coolidge Thursday afternoon to see the Mexia High Black Cats Kittens tangle with the Coolidge Fish and believe me the game was well worth the trip even though it looked like the Black Kittens were due for a trimming until after the opening of the second half and then the fire works began when Ward circled right end for a seventy yard sprint and the first Kitten touchdown—he also kicked goal for the extra point. The other Kitten touchdowns were made on fake plays that had the Coolidge fish completely befuddled and the Kittens ran their total to twenty one when Ward booted drop kick goals after each touchdown and the game ended with the Mexia Kittens an easy winner 21-0. To say just who played the best game for the Kittens would be almost impossible as all played a great game against a team that greatly outweighed them, however the flashy work of Ward, Masterson, Travis and Potter cannot be overlooked although I would like to say something good about the whole flock of Kittens but I don't know their cognomens—what ever that is. I couldn't help but notice "pee-wee" Potter "period" Travis on account of him being so little and even though they bucked boys who were twice their size they always came out victorious. These "Fish" are a "wow" and hand you many a laugh during the game and believe me I am going to all their game hereafter. "Stay in there Black Kittens, you'll be needed on the regular team next season."

Keep on telling 'em and you will keep on selling 'em. News Advertising brings desired results.

NEW INCOME TAX LAW REVEALS SOME BIG SURPRISES

(By United Press)

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Transfer and distribution of some of America's greatest blue blood fortunes is bringing to the fore a new class of wealthy publication of income tax returns for 1923 revealed here today.

John D. Rockefeller Sr. long regarded the richest man in the world is found to have handed down to his son the bulk of his huge fortune as told by these two income tax payments:

John D. Rockefeller Jr., $7,155,169.41.

John D. Rockefeller Sr., $121,666.47.

Young Rockefeller and the family and motor works of Henry Ford are shown by the first published income payments, to represent the two greatest incomes in the country today.

But while the holdings of the elder Rockefeller are being transferred to his son, the once great fortunes of the Astors, Vanderbilts and Goulds, are shown to have been distributed among members of the family that no one income tax paid by any one of them would indicate the commanding fortunes once held by the heads of those old houses.

J. P. Morgan is found to pay an income tax of only $9,564 as designated by law. Since there is nothing in the law which specifically permitted "publication" of the income tax payments, some of the authorities held publication was contrary to law. The newspapers were divided on the point, the New York Times, World, News and other printing the figures, while the Herald-Tribune did not print them.

Among the nationally known figures in different cases of life, interesting elevations of success are to be drawn from the tax figures. E. H. Bary, chairman of the board of the United States Steel Corporation paid a tax of $173,000, while Charles M. Schwab, another steel magnate paid $20,000. Thomas W. Lamont of the Morgan firm, paid $847,600, several times as much as the head of the firm.

In the theatre world, here were some of the taxes paid:

Eddie Cantor, comedian $6,500; David Belasco, noted producer $13,200 and one of his leading stars, Lenore Ulrich, of Kikif fame $10,200 and another Jeanne Eagels, who has made history with "Rain," $1,800; Marie Claw $9,308; David Warfield $9,800; Marcus Lowe $19,800; L. Jolson $15,000; Albee Brady $18,000; Otis Skinner $12,000.

Among the prominent in politics, John W. Davis, democratic candidate for president was shown to have paid an income tax of $81,000; Charles Evan Hughes, Secretary of State $3,600; Morris Hillquit, Socialist Leader $2,000; Chauncey M. Depew $11,000; Nicholas Murray Butler $6,500.

Then there is Jack Dempsey with $20,000 and his manager, Jack Kearns with $7,000.

Thomas Meigan, movie star, lived up to the reputed income with a tax of $51,200, while Richard Barthelmess paid $20,000 and Lilian Gish $973.

George W. Goethals, who built the Panama Canal paid $15,000.

The greatest confusion occurred in New York when it was suddenly revealed that the tax payments had been released to public study. This confusion was enhanced when the

When her mother, who has been campaigning for United States Senator La Follette, of Wisconsin, third party Presidential candidate, became ill, Miss Fola La Follette, daughter of the candidate, took the stump for her father at a Brooklyn (N. Y.) rally. Jacob Franks, millionaire father of little "Bobby" Franks, murdered in Chicago by Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb, has announced that he has set aside a trust fund to be used to fight any future efforts of the slayers to secure parole or pardon. Eamonn de Valera, "president" of the Irish "republic," invaded Ulster to make speeches, despite the order of Premier Craig that he stay out. The conviction of William H. Anderson, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of New York, for forgery, has been upheld by the Court of Appeals. There is no further appeal and he must finish his term in Sing Sing Prison.

Dr. Geo. A. Works On Texas Text Books

FORT WORTH, Texas, Oct. 24.—Texas has gone further in centralizing control of public textbooks than have most states, according to Dr. George A. Works, director of the Texas School Survey. He believes that some changes can be made in the interest of both economy and efficiency. In a report made today he discusses the free textbook and the uniform textbook regulations.

Free Textbooks.

Free textbooks, he points out, are provided by districts in most states, whereas in Texas payment comes from the State Treasury. Even in California where the state prints its own elementary texts at state expense, payment for high school texts is left to the district. But there is no disposition on the part of Texas to make this change, he thinks, so he suggests some ways in which considerable can be saved the state.

One saving can come through a modification of the law in the matter of contracts. This is through allowing newly adopted texts to take their places gradually, replacing worn-out texts of their predecessors as they need to be destroyed. This would save wholesale destruction of books that are yet usable.

Short-time contracts might make another great saving. This would mean the making of a temporary contract to terminate after a trial of the text in actual teaching had been made, and satisfaction or dissatisfaction determined. If there was general satisfaction, a long-time contract would be made. The Textbook Commission has this privilege under present stipulations of the law.

Care of textbooks would mean

another saving, and this could be insured by taking the value of the books out of the total apportionment of the given district or county, and so notifying the people of that unit. This responsibility placed on the unit has been found to effect a saving in other states.

Uniform Texts.

Less rigid uniformity is recommended by Dr. Works in choice of textbooks for use in high schools. He suggests that the list of the particular books include several alternatives, and that choice of particular books be left to local authorities. High school inspectors from the State Department, would in that case he points out, be instructed to give equal recognition to all books on the approved list.

Separate texts should be adopted for Junior High Schools, also, as the books now prescribed for the prevailing type of sixth and seventh grades are not suitable for the junior high school, which is a new type of organization. The present arrangement, according to Dr. Works, is a serious handicap to the reconstruction of curricula of the upper elementary grades. Further, there must be more freedom in choice of texts for special schools, such as those in which Mexican or other foreign elements prevail.

CORNER MAIN AND SHERMAN

Trial of texts to determine whether or not they are satisfactory should be considered in construction of curricula also, as well as for the sake of economy through short-time contracts. The state should be canvassed to see if texts are proving satisfactory or not. The public should be kept informed of every move and contemplated action of the Textbook Commission, says that there is to be a change, but they should be told the reasons for the change, and should be given a general review of the textbook situation regularly through the public press and otherwise.

"THE STORE AHEAD"

From Waste to Thrift

Enough wasted capital to build homes for all!

The United States Government thinks so much of the THRIFT movement that it is expending many thousands of dollars annually to keep the thought before the people. Whether we are so intentionally or not the fact remains that the American nation is extremely wasteful in its habits. It is easy for each one of us to make a list of the things we buy habitually which are of little or no value to us. But, when we are thinking along this line, we should not forget the one wasteful practice which the majority of families indulge in—that of buying rent receipts.

The purchasing of rent receipts is so needless, too. The landlord, be he kind or otherwise, always has us at his mercy. He can raise the rent on us at any time, or he can order us to vacate his property at his convenience, without any regard for our wishes or possible losses. It is true that we live in a house meanwhile, but it can never be a real HOME, because HOME signifies possession; and our possession of a rented house or apartment is always precarious.

We all want a home, too. The wife longs for it and the kiddies constantly ask why they can not plant that flower garden or put up that bird-cote or do a thousand and one other things that normal children want to do—and can not when they are homeless. Even the little ones themselves are often barred from the rented apartment—and that means a terrible loss alike to the married couple, the community and the nation.

And you can have a home for what your useless rent receipts cost you. Did you ever stop and think for a few consecutive moments along that line? For instance, you pay a rental of $40 per month—very modest in these days—well in ten years that will aggregate $4,800, for which you can build a home equally as good as the one which you can get for that rental. And so you can add the rent you pay in any twelve months and multiply it by ten and there is your HOME.

But, suppose you can not put out that amount at once. Here is where Thrift comes in at the door and Waste is forced to fly out at the window—or any other available opening. Have you ever considered that the average cost of cosmetics, chewing gum, sodas and soft drinks, joy rides and pleasure resorts is $276.00 a year for every man, woman and child in the United States? That is what Uncle Sam says, based on the figures secured by the census bureau.

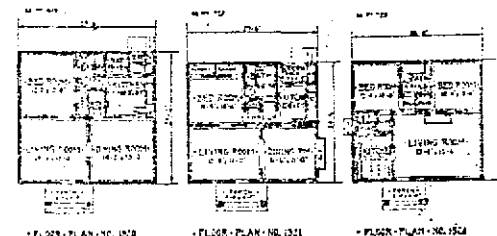

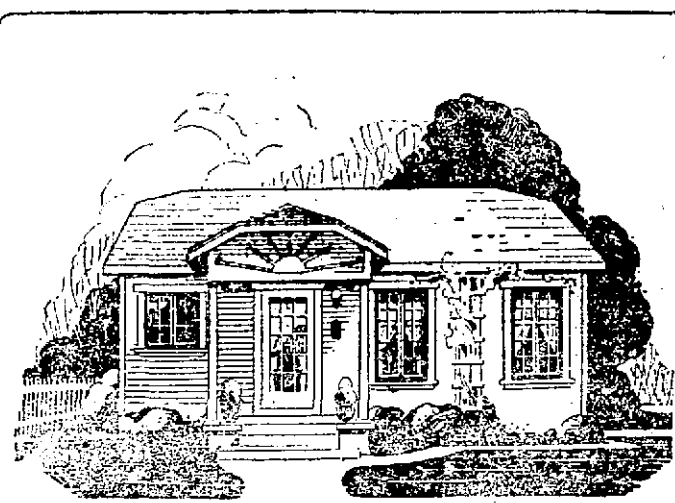

Now, here are yourself and wife—suppose you have no little ones in your family as yet. There is an average of $452.00 a year for these luxuries, to say nothing of a hundred others that may be named. Can you not save out of these other things for a few years only, sufficient to pay the interest on the sum of money which will buy you real Home? You will not have to give them up—by no means. But, by a little care you can lop off here and there a dollar or five or ten, until, before you know it, you have your own home and are on "Easy Street."

Waste is not alone spending foolishly—it also comprises failure to spend wisely.

What more sensible expenditure can You make than when buying a HOME?

The last few years have seen more home-buyers than any century previous—all because men and women are listening to the voices of their better natures and providing places where children may develop with their trees and flowers and pets, and where husbands and wives may grow into fathers and mothers who are both wise and generous.

The road to Thrift ever leads away from Waste; the buying of a home is the most Thrifty thing you have ever contemplated or achieved. And, by far the best way to buy a home is to build one.

Here are ideas for the little home you have been contemplating building. The exterior reflects one of the most attractive homes ever developed, and the three floor plans contain such a variety of arrangements and conveniences that you cannot help but find in one of them just the plan you will want to adopt to build from, and later, if you care to do so, additional rooms may be added as needed.

We are endeavoring to feature plans and arrangements that will meet your approval, plans that you will want to secure and build from, and, as this service is being featured for your convenience, mail this coupon.

EUBANKS URGES DEMOCRATS TO JOIN VICTORY CLUBS

It is absolutely certain that Coolidge is already defeated," is the assertion made by C. W. Journey for many years secretary to former Senator Chas. A. Culberson and now occupying a similar position with Senator Royal S. Copeland of New York.

This conviction is expressed in a letter to Judge John L. Young of Dallas, Associate Director of Finance for Texas, Democratic National Committee, says a statement issued by A. H. Eubanks, county Finance Director, who is urging all Democrats of the county to join the Victory Clubs and by their contributions, however modest, to aid in the election of John W. Davis, the Democratic presidential nominee.

Mr. Journey, a Texan, who long has been in touch with the national political pulse, wrote Judge Young as follows:

"There is no question about Coolidge's defeat, for Davis has 206 sure votes and LaFollette 60, which makes 266 or a majority of the electoral college which makes it utterly impossible for Coolidge to win there.

"The only question is whether Davis in the remaining weeks can get a clear majority in the electoral college, or whether the contest will go to the House, but in either event, he is certain of selection in the electoral college or in the House."

"You can put it down that it is going to be president John W. Davis after March 4, for if he fails of a majority on Nov. 4, he will get a majority in the House. There will be a joint session of the House and Senate on the second Wednesday in February, 1925 to count the vote. This fall on February 11, next year, and if nobody receives a majority after the vote is canvassed, the House will then proceed to the election of a president and there is no question that, if it goes that far, Coolidge will be entirely out of it and the only question will be in whether it will be Davis or Bryan. There is no doubt in the mind of anyone in Washington about the result in that sort of contingency, for the Republicans would boldly vote for Davis before they would let Bryan have it. The Democrats are going to win in one of these two ways.

"In the 206 votes for Davis that no can take away from his are not included those of New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Indiana, Ohio or Illinois, and he has a fine chance to pick up sixty votes in these States and get a clear majority in the college.

"Regarding the situation in New York, Coolidge will lose one million votes on Nov. 4, which went to Harding four years ago. Four hundred thousand of these, the German block, are going to vote for LaFollette. A hundred thousand block, the negro vote, is going to be for Davis on account of his opposition to the Ku Klux Klan. A block of three or four hundred thousand Jewish and Italian votes is going to be divided between Davis and LaFollette on account of the new Republican immigration law.

"Tammany is more interested in putting Davis over than it has been in any National campaign since Tilden, in 1876, and it can be depended upon to vote to the limit. Davis has helped himself greatly by his wonderful campaign, and with the help of Al Smith, I believe we are going to carry New York. If we do, New Jersey, Connecticut and Rhode Island will swing in line."

CANNON-MONAGHAN

Mr. Temp Cannon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Cannon, and Miss LaVerna Monaghan, daughter of Mr. R. Y. Monaghan, were united in marriage in Mexia Sunday, and left for a visit to relatives in Marlin. This is an event that has been expected by friends for sometime. They are two of our most respected young people, both of large, influential families. They have the best wishes of a host of friends.—Thornton Hustler.

17 Congregations Numbered Here In Revival Meeting

The above church is now bringing to a close a wonderful revival at the McKinney St. School. Under the leadership of the Rev. J. E. Phillips, in more ways than one, the first place we were in securing Evangelist Whitewright, Texas, to do the preaching in the Evangelist Carter is perhaps the best Bible student preache in Mexia. He repeats more Bible than ever heard in this town, and common saying over the city of those who have heard him. He is a stranger here, there being no one here in Mexia who have known him all his life, and many others who have been hearing him preach for more than 25 years. No man has ever stood before any people, with less fear, with the good book in his hands, and told that what God said for them to do, than Evangelist Carter.

The Church refores over the fact to show the love, respect, and honor, people have in this "man of God", they came for more than 25 miles several nights, among the members were Elder John Hedge, also P. J. McDaniel, who has been in many meetings with Bro. Carter. In fact there have been in attendance at this meeting 17 congregations of the Church of Christ.

Since the meeting has been in progress, Evangelist Carter has aroused in his members the desire to build them a house of worship. So they are now looking out a location, and it is hoped in the near future they will soon have a house of their own. There has been several additions to the Church up to this date (Saturday). Several are to be baptized Sunday. This Church is now trying to engage Evangelist Carter for another meeting in 1925. You are invited to hear him Lord's Day at 11 o'clock, also at 7:15 p. m. Subject is, "Faith, What is it, and how does it come?"—Reporter.

J. E. Phillips has returned from Haynesville, La., where he has been visiting his daughter, Miss Ora Phillips, who is teaching there this year. He also visited other relatives in that section.

Miss Ida Moss Wilkerson of Dallas is visiting Miss Frances Corley. She has been the recipient of many social honors the past week.

Friday afternoon, Miss Ellington entertained in honor of Miss Wilkerson of Dallas, with two tables of bridge.

Mrs. Joe Sherrer and daughter, Miss Jessiemae, attended the Dallas fair Saturday.

Mrs. M. P. Houa and grand daughters, Misses Lurke and Andrea Bates, went up to the big fair Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Sinclair went up to Dallas Saturday to visit their sons, Lister and Leslie, and to attend the big fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Womack returned Friday night from a few weeks' sojourn in New York and other eastern cities.

Harvey Story, an old Mexican now living in Dallas, was in the city Saturday visiting his brother, Reuben, and other relatives.

News dispatches from London indicate that no party will secure a working majority in the new Parliament, members of which will be elected October 29. Some experts believe the new Ministry will either be a predominantly Liberal Tory Cabinet, headed by ex-Premier Stanley Baldwin, or the revival of a Coalition Ministry, such as carried Great Britain through the World War. In the event of a Coalition Government, ex-Premier David Lloyd George, Winston Spencer Churchill, Sir Robert Horne and Lord Birkenhead are expected to have prominent portfolios.

Chicago Tribune Locks Horns With Associated Press

(By United Press)

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—In an editorial entitled "Associated Press Tries To Shut Off Radio Service," The Chicago Tribune, today, challenged the right of the Associated Press to prohibit member papers from broadcasting news or election bulletins to which the news agency is "exclusively" entitled.

The notice served on the Tribune by the Associated Press raises an issue of interest to radio users as well as newspaper managers and readers, the editorial stated.

"The notice in effect forbids the broadcasting of election news by newspapers using the Associated Press Service," the editorial declares in part. "News gathered by the Tribune, by reason of its membership in the Associated Press, is available to the A. P. and becomes at once news matter of the association."

"Thus the notice referred to, if not resisted, would prevent the Tribune from sending out through its radio service broadcasting station, WGN, any local election news gathered by its own reporters."

"The Tribune and other newspapers broadcasting derive no profit or tangible benefit from broadcasting which involves a considerable expenditure without direct return or material compensation. The service is maintained for such advertising value as it may have, and in the expectation that the service will make friends for the newspaper which gives it."

Hereafter the practice has been to flash election returns on screens in front of newspaper offices, thereby subjecting the spectators to the vagaries of the weather, the Tribune stated. Now the people can be served in their own homes by radio.

"We think that this is a great addition to the comfort, convenience and interest of living in our modern world, and we are quite sure the Associated Press can not shut it off any more than the Luddites of Nottingham could stop the introduction of machinery in 1811," the editorial continued.

"In our opinion an attempt to prevent the broadcasting of election results is bound to be futile."

It is unlikely that this new resource will injure the newspapers, the Tribune said.

"The fear resembles that of the fear of improvements in machinery in industry," the editorial stated. "Adjustments may have to be made, but a great advance in human resource cannot be defeated by anything it ought not to."

"There may be legal obstacles in the way of our giving to the public the full value of our news broadcasting service, but if so, we intend to test them in the courts and, if possible, overcome them, as we are confident we can."

Out today, November "True Romances." Pioneer News Stand.

The Mexia Hi Black Cats had a little trouble in getting started with their drive against the Hubbard Jack Rabbits but when they did, nothing stopped them. During the first quarter they scored but one counter and in the second quarter they scored fourteen points more bringing the total to twenty one.

Up to that period of the game it looked like the Hubbard boys were going to do the unexpected and hold the Cats down. A big blonde headed youngster by the name of Weatherby who was captain of the Hubbard aggregation and played center on the offense and on defense played an end was easily the highlight of the Hubbard aggregation. He was in nearly every play and had it not been for him the Cats would have piled up a larger score and then, if they had had two or three more players like him the score would have been smaller.

In the second quarter the Jack Rabbits started a forward pass attack but it was finally broke up but Coach Potect had to pull two or three men before they were unable to successfully curb it. After the passes had been stopped he sent in five subs and gave his first string men a little rest.

All of the Cats turned in good games but that turned in by Perkins, Thompson and Clover in the backfield was noticeable. Aulds Hoelzel turned in good games on the wing positions while Corley and Bennett played good games in the line also.

Cisco and Breckenridge played a 0 to 0 tie Friday and that tie game may be the wrecking of Cisco's chances for the State championship as Chigger Browne, the half who scored the touchdown that beat Abilene this year and also scored the only touchdown against them last year, was taken from the game with a broken arm.

The Waco Hi Tigers defeated the Corsicana Hi Tigers in Corsicana Friday 43 to 0. The Corsicana defense was poor and the Wacoans had little trouble of scoring. Mays and Varnell played the best games for Corsicana.

Marlin Hi took another step towards the district championship when they did away with the Hillsboro Eagles to the tune of 22 to 0. That Marlin gang is stepping some with Burr Russell and Lenoir showing the form that they have shown for their previous High School years.

Passes by the Southwestern Pirates sent the Trinity Tigers down in defeat 7 to 3. The Tigers could not break up the passing game of the Pirates who passed at every opportunity.

Morrison saved Trinity from being scored on in the final minute of play by downing Weeks on the 2 yard line after receiving a 40 yard pass from Mateer. Morrison overtook Weeks to make the tackle.

"Do The Day's Work" Has Been Motto Of Calvin Coolidge During His Whole Career; He Sticks Close To His Job

When Calvin Coolidge was Governor of Massachusetts one of his utterances often quoted, was "Do the day's work." Since the death of President Harding, Mr. Coolidge has given the country and the world an example of practicing what he preaches. He has done the day's work every day, even if he had to work far into the night to do it.

The only vacation the President has had this year was a short trip to his native village of Plymouth, Vermont, where he visited his father. The rigorous business of being President of the greatest country in the world makes necessary some rest and relaxation, a change from the terrific grind that is mostly responsible for the death of President Coolidge's predecessor.

The President has stated publicly that the business of being President will take too much of his time to permit of making a campaign. The Republican National Committee under the leadership of William M. Butler of Massachusetts will do that. Mr. Coolidge, except for his brief visit to Vermont, is staying on the job in Washington, doing the day's work.

His vacation was spent in hard work, but work of another sort. Much of the time he wore overalls. He gets his exercise with a plow instead of a set of golf sticks. He is on more intimate terms with a pitchfork than a polo pony.

Mrs. Coolidge's face is shaded by her hat in the picture taken with her distinguished husband and her son. The other picture gives an idea of the attractive First Lady of the Land, whose charm and tact have captivated Washington. Before her marriage she was Miss Grace Anna Goodhue, of Northampton. She married Calvin Coolidge October 4, 1905, when he was a young lawyer practicing in Northampton.
